AT LEAST A DOZEN KILLED AND MANY INJURED WHEN RESTAURANT COLLAPSES

Blast of Dynamite in Excavation Nearby Brings Death to Numerous Diners in Popular Akron Cafe—Victims Buried Beneath the Debris. National Guardsmen Help in Restraining the Crowd.

By the Associated Press.
Akron, O., May 15.—At least a dozen persons were killed and nearly a score injured this evening when the old Heaton Crystal restaurant, occupied by the result of a blast of dynamite in an adjoining excavation.
Seven identified and three unidentified bodies have been recovered and two persons now missing are thought to be in the ruins.
Battery B, Ohio National Guard, field artillery, was called out to aid in the rescue of the victims who were more than 1000 persons who packed the streets at Main and Quarry, where the accident occurred.
A tremendous roar, echoing the screams of the dying people, brought thousands to the disaster scene in the heart of Akron's business district. Instantly the entire city, rallying under the shock, plunged to the work of rescuing.
A great pile of ruins, broken timbers, twisted steel and tons of brick and mortar buried the victims who a moment before were dining in the restaurant.
Eight bodies were soon taken out of the wreckage after firemen, police and volunteer rescuers had worked frantically digging and chopping through the debris.
Nineteen others, many of them said to be fatally injured, were extricated and sent to hospitals.
Blasts of dynamite set off in an excavation for a new building directly north of the restaurant unsettled the foundation. The restaurant was a one-

MANY LIVES LOST IN EXPLOSION AT GIBBSTOWN, N. J.

By the Associated Press.
Gibbstown, N. J., May 15.—At least fourteen men were killed and about thirty injured today in a terrific explosion at the Repapine plant of the Dupont Powder company near here. The blast occurred in the building in which a trinitrotoluol is manufactured and wrecked that structure and three others seeking an agreement.
The identified dead:
W. F. Lawley, Woodbury, N. J., assistant superintendent of the trinitrotoluol plant.
George Marsh, Paulsboro, N. J., foreman.
George W. Ryan, Paulsboro.
Bernard Keller, Paulsboro.
Andreas Ettinger, Paulsboro.
Fred Reim, Gibbstown.
John J. Volk, Woodbury, N. J.
Chas. Hoelzer, Woodbury, N. J.
Frank Hamburn.
The cause of the explosion is not known.
Trinitrotoluol is not considered an explosive risk and company officials said it caught fire before exploding.
This blast caused a building in which up to 500 great was the force that two buildings nearby were wrecked but many of those killed and injured were outside the building involved and debris. Other workmen promptly went to the rescue and ambulance calls were sent in to various nearby towns.

SCOTT OPTIMISTIC ON BORDER OUTLOOK

WASHINGTON OFFICIALS THINK FUNSTON NOW HAS SUFFICIENT FORCES.
Nothing Heard of Villa in Many Days and Belief is Growing That the Bandit is Dead.

By the Associated Press.
Washington, May 15.—The state department and General Carranza are optimistic of the success of the military conference here today. General Scott, chief of staff, returned here today optimistic over the military situation and confident that the meeting between himself and General Funston and General Obregon, Carranza's war minister, has created a better understanding.
War and state department advisers showed no change today in the situation in Mexico. Along the border, while press reports have told of several raids of a minor character at various points in the last few days, General Funston either has been unable to confirm these stories or has thought them too unimportant to bring to the attention of the war department.
Officials continue to express confidence that the forces now under General Funston's command will be able to protect the border in such fashion that repetitions of the Glen Springs raid will be impossible unless the border is a general anti-American outbreak beyond the border. There is nothing to indicate the likelihood of such an event.
General Funston's new plan for cooperation is watched with interest.
General Scott probably will confer at length with Secretary Baker tomorrow and later with Secretary Lansing. The war department has had no additional news of the border situation, which some officers are inclined to believe that he either is dead or has slipped into hiding to recuperate from serious wounds. At the moment he has ceased to be a factor in the border situation, whatever part he may play in the future.
As to the political situation in Mexico, officials do not seem to be very clear. It is pointed out by officials that Mexico has a thorough knowledge of the situation in the north, which through the chase after Villa, lay that the Mexican civil population outside of the larger towns is absolutely ignorant of what is going on.

GLASS RURAL CREDIT BILL PASSES HOUSE BY BIG MAJORITY

By the Associated Press.
Washington, May 15.—The Glass rural credit bill providing for a federal farm loan board and a system of twelve local banks passed the house today by a vote of 295 to 19.
A similar measure already has passed the senate and the difference probably will be worked out soon in conference.
Little opposition was encountered by the bill. Under its terms the federal farm loan board will be authorized to change loan associations between the senate and house bills to be authorized farm loan banks at $500,000, would authorize loan associations with unlimited liability; the house would limit the minimum to $100,000. The senate interest on all defaulted payments on the principal in sums of $100 or multiples and the house $25 or multiples.
The senate makes the actual earnings of the land the principal factor and the house makes the agricultural value the principal basis of appraisal.
With the passage of the rural credits bill democratic house leaders prepared to bring the administration shipping bill up for consideration beginning tomorrow.

SWIFT VENGEANCE WREAKED ON NEGRO AFTER JURY BRINGS IN DEATH PENALTY

Waiting Patiently Until Trial Is Finished, Determined Mob Takes Jess Washington From Officers in Court Room and Burns Him on City Hall Square—Black Makes Desperate Resistance.

Waiting until the jury had found Jess Washington guilty of murder and fixed his punishment at death, a mob, formed principally of citizens from the Robinson community, overpowered the officers in the court room and taking the assassin and murderer of Mrs. Lucy Fryer to the public square, burned him to the stake.
The trial commenced at 10 o'clock. At 11:25 the jury brought in its verdict. Then came the mob. Somebody yelled, "Get the nigger." Stalking over the shoulders of all in his way, a tall, young farmer led the excited throng. In almost an instant the officers had been forced to one side, and tearing Washington's clothes off as they went, the mob dragged him down the back stairs of the court room and into the alley.
Fighting desperately and squealing like a crazed animal, the negro put up all the resistance he could. He bit one man's finger almost to the bone, but was forced to let go when another man slashed him in the face. Several knives and the prisoner with blood long before the square was reached.
In the alley another yelling, determined throng was waiting. "Throw him out the window," they yelled. "Get him." Who had taken the prisoner from the chain around his neck, they surged passed by wagons and autos, killing had evidently been placed.
"Hang him from the bridge," yelled many, and a large portion of the crowd went on down to the river. But those who remained on the square kept on their feet, and turned up Second street toward the city hall.

BRANDEIS MATTER MAY BE FOUGHT OUT ON SENATE FLOOR

By the Associated Press.
Washington, May 15.—It now appears practically certain that the issue of the nomination of Louis D. Brandeis to the supreme court of the United States is to be fought out in the senate, where the committee has considered and investigated the case for more than three months.
Although no authoritative announcement has been made, it was reported today that a favorable session of the committee would not be agreed upon and several democratic senators would vote to return the nomination to the senate without recommendation.
One democratic member of the committee who has been wavering in his attitude toward Brandeis, told a republican colleague that the committee would re-disapprove, probably next Wednesday, Brandeis' nomination. He said that the committee spoke their minds frankly on the case at today's session and a vote might have been taken had it not been for the unavoidable absence of Senators Cummings and Shields. There are eighteen members of the committee. All of the republicans are opposed to confirmation. Two democrats said to be strongly against it and two favor a report without recommendation. These two are arguing the compromise for which the other democrats may have to vote to prevent adverse action.
Such a course would mean a long fight in the senate. Administration leaders have stated that the struggle would end in confirmation of Brandeis, and one republican leader who is expected that this would be the result.

METHODISTS MAY STICK TO OLD RULE AGAINST DANCING

By the Associated Press.
Saratoga Springs, N. Y., May 15.—Two vigorous contests in the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church were forecast tonight by the announcement that the committee on Episcopacy had voted to make a supplemental report to the committee on state of the church and to recommend that the church should prohibit dancing in its membership. Both recommendations, it was predicted by conference leaders, would meet with much opposition.
The committee urged that two missions be chosen to carry the work in Africa formerly in charge of Missionary Bishop Joseph C. Hartwell and Isaiah H. Scott, who have been retired at their own request.
Debate in the conference developed a sentiment against any increase in the number of bishops by the administration of new members.

U. S. Will Insist England Stop Bothering Mails

By the Associated Press.
Washington, May 15.—Negotiations with England regarding interference with mails to and from the United States and international commerce by the British navy are to be resumed in the very near future.
A note insisting sharply upon modification in the treatment of mails at sea is being prepared at the state department and as soon as possible British note defending the operation of the blockade orders in council.

CASEMENT'S TRIAL BEGINS IN LONDON

By the Associated Press.
London, May 15.—The writing of a new chapter in the history of the Sinn Fein rebellion was begun today when Sir Roger Casement, knighted in 1911 for services to the British government, and Daniel Julian Bailey, an Irish patriot, were tried for treason in the ill-fated submarine trip from Germany to Ireland.
Casement was placed in the dock of the Bow street police court for preliminary examination on the charge of high treason.
Considerable testimony introduced by the crown tend to incriminate Bailey, the main attack of the prosecution was directed against Casement in an effort to bring him in a net of guilt.
Casement was the center of all eyes during the day. It was evident that he was no ordinary prisoner before the bar, for despite the unkempt condition of his clothing, he made a striking figure with neatly trimmed beard and forehead brushed well back from a high forehead underneath which were the deep-set eyes of the dreamer.
Casement's busy self taking notes, indicating that he intended to have a hand in the presentation of his defense. He was self-possessed and as the case wore on began to assume considerable assurance.
The most dramatic part of the whole proceeding was the address of the attorney general, who outlined Sir Roger Casement's former services to his country, told of the honor bestowed on him by the king and then shifted abruptly to the details of the conspiracy.

SENATE REJECTS RUBLEE NOMINATION

By the Associated Press.
Washington, May 15.—The nomination of George Rublee of New Hampshire as a federal trade commissioner was rejected today by the senate. The vote was 49 to 41.
The committee on commerce and trade recommended the nomination of Rublee to the senate. Rublee is a member of the New Hampshire legislature and has been in the service of the federal government for several years.
The senate's rejection of Rublee's nomination was a surprise to many observers, who had expected that he would be confirmed. The vote was a narrow one, and it is expected that Rublee will continue to serve in his present position.

TEXAS ARCHITECTS Meet in October

By the Associated Press.
Austin, Tex., May 15.—The executive committee of the Texas State Association of Architects in session here today fixed October 11-14 as the time for holding the 1916 convention of the association at Galveston. The place was selected as the convention place before the association met in San Antonio.
The program for the coming convention committee composed of the Galveston architects.
Those attending today's meeting were: O. J. Lohren, Houston, president; N. F. Davis, Galveston; A. O. Watson, A. Andrews, F. R. Giescke, H. Pampel of Austin; Milton Scott, Waco; Alfred Giles, Karl Vanscooter, and James Wahrnberger, San Antonio.
The committee informally discussed some proposed changes in the laws affecting architects.

VOLUNTARY FORECAST.

By Isidor Block, D. O. S., F. R. Met. Soc.,
Optician and Meteorologist.
Unsettled; clearing tonight or Wednesday, with colder weather.
The low pressure has moved north-eastward and is causing considerable energy, causing general rains over the Mississippi valley. The high that was centered in the northern section of the country is moving rapidly to the west, which will probably cause unsettled weather, with rain and much colder.
Local Readings.
Local readings for the twenty-four hours ending at 7 o'clock yesterday evening: Highest, 81°; at 7 a. m., lowest 69°; wind passage 44; 11 miles fastest at 12:30 p. m.

No Part Taken in Guarding Negro by Barney Goldberg

Members of the crowd which took Jess Washington away from the officers yesterday morning almost made a serious mistake last night, somebody having spread the rumor that Barney Goldberg had struck two men with a gun in attempting to defend the negro, injuring one of them badly. Vengeance was threatened against Goldberg, who, as it transpired, was not at the courthouse at all.

W. E. Stovell of Robinson, who saw the occurrence in question, made the following statement last night: "I saw the man who struck two men in the crowd which was taking the negro to the square. I know the man personally and he is not Barney Goldberg or any of Sheriff Fleming's deputies. I helped take the gun away from the man, who lives several miles south of Waco. Goldberg said, 'I don't see how anybody thought I had anything to do with the occurrence, as I never left my store at all this morning, was not at the courthouse at all and had nothing whatever to do with the matter.'"

Goldberg's statement is borne out by a large number of persons, some of whom were in his store during the time the negro was being taken to the square.

Dublin, May 15.—A courtmartial soon will be called to try John MacNeill, president of the Sinn Fein volunteers and professor of law in the National university. It is announced that he will be allowed to be represented by counsel.

Try Magnesia For Stomach Trouble

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity. Prevents Food Fermentation.

Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried peppermint, soda, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and you know these things will not cure your trouble. In some cases do not even give relief. But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic just try the effect of a little magnesia—the ordinary carbonate, citrate, oxide or milk but the pure bisulphate of magnesia which you can obtain from practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form. Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous harmful acid in your stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy feeling which now seems to follow most everything you eat.

You will find that, provided you take a little bisulphate of magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow and moreover the continued use of the bisulphate of magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion.

Many Want Tickets to G O P Convention in Chicago

By the Associated Press.
Chicago, May 15.—Officials of the republican national convention which meets here June 7 declared today that the demand for tickets to the gathering is unprecedented. Seats have been applied for by 13,400 persons in the coliseum and although the convention is three weeks off forty thousand applications have been received for tickets of admission. Requests have come from every state and from London, Eng., Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico and Cuba.

The 12,400 tickets will be distributed under the following order: Delegates, 991; guest tickets, one to each delegate, 991; alternates, 991; press, 650. Chicago's share as convention city, 2210.

Ten members sub-committee on arrangements of the national republican committee 200 each, 2000; fifty-three members national republican committee, 15 to 200 each; presidential candidates and other distinguished guests, 200.

Of the 12,400 seats 9,400 will be on the main floor and 3,000 in the balcony and special mezzanines. The temporary chairman and other officers of the convention and their assistants and members of the committee will occupy seats on the spectators' platform at the south end of the coliseum.

Back of the spectators' platform will be two thousand seats for distinguished guests. On either side of the spectators' platform will be the 558 seats for working newspaper men.

The rest of the space on the main floor will be reserved for visitors.

The committee has had tickets printed for six days session.

Experts Approve Wine of Cardui

By the Associated Press.
Chicago, May 15.—Medical experts, obstetricians, trained nurses, physicians and patients gave testimony favorable to Wine of Cardui today in the federal court against the American Medical Association. Dr. Francis E. Thornton of Chicago, said that in thousands of confinement cases he had used Viburnum Prunifolium, one of the ingredients of Wine of Cardui.

"Would a dose of this medicine containing forty-eight drops of alcohol have any harmful effect if given in medical doses?" he was asked.

"No."

A number of depositions testifying to the merits of Wine of Cardui were read into the record. Mrs. G. W. Saturday, a trained nurse, of Savannah, Ga., deposed that she had given it to patients, that it was used by herself and her mother and she had never heard of any one becoming addicted to its use. She and her mother, she deposed, gained relief and strength from it.

Buchanan to Get an Early Trial

By the Associated Press.
New York, May 15.—Congressman Frank Buchanan and others charged with conspiring to violate the Sherman anti-trust law by inciting strikes among munition workers in this country are to be given an early trial in the federal court. It was asserted here today by a responsible government official after a conference in the offices of United States District Attorney Snowden Marshall.

When Congressman Buchanan preferred impeachment charges against Mr. Marshall sometime ago it was announced that the trial would go over because of the full term. The decision today came as a surprise.

Last week it was decided that Congressman Buchanan was to file similar motions through his chief counsel, former Senator J. W. Bailey of Texas. It was learned today, however, by the government that the former senator has abandoned this intention.

The government, it was declared, is eager to bring the case to trial in view of the fact that new and allegedly startling evidence had been uncovered.

Border Patrol Is Being Reorganized

By the Associated Press.
San Antonio, May 15.—Major General Frederick Funston and his chief of staff, Major Malvern Hill-Barnum, worked out many details today of the plan of reorganization of the border patrol while reports from General Pershing and from the Big Bend district served to emphasize how incidental the American operations south of the border have become. General Pershing's troops drew closer together and gave to him that early recognition of the chase of Francisco Villa was contemplated. Colonel Sibley is driving his little command of cavalry some sixty miles south of Bonavillas, but at headquarters little hope that he will capture the bandits or rescue Jesse Deemer, whom they carried away, is displayed.

The safeguarding of the Southern Pacific railway from here to El Paso was decided upon today and as quickly as possible troops will be sent to every bridge along the line.

In the event of military operations on a big scale the use of that railroad would be imperative. For a great part of the distance the line runs near the Rio Grande, and, unless guarded, its cutting would be comparatively simple.

Agents of the department of justice talked with General Funston regarding the plan for riding across the border near Brownsville and representatives of owners in that district also made representations to him.

Weather is Varied Over Texas

By the Associated Press.
Fort Worth, May 15.—Reports from West Texas towns today indicated weather extremes in the past twenty-four hours which established records for this season of the year. At Gainesville, after a period of excessively high temperature for May, the thermometer fell almost to the freezing point. Brownwood reported similar weather with almost blizzard conditions prevailing late tonight. A hail storm did much damage in the vicinity of Dallas.

Rains on South Atlantic.

COLORED TROOPS GUARD VILLISTA PRISONERS IN MEXICO

Several members of Villa's bandit band that raided Columbus, N. M., have been captured by the American forces in Mexico. Three of them, guarded closely by colored American troopers, are shown in this stockade near the American camp at Namiquipa, Mexico.

SUMMARY OF WAR

By the Associated Press.

Little heavy fighting is in progress in any of the various war theaters.

The French in the Meuse hills to the east of Verdun in a surprise attack have cleared the Germans from trenches over a front of about 200 yards. Bombardments are taking place around Verdun.

Along the British line in France bombardment and sapping operations are being carried out at various points. East of Lens the Germans succeeded in gaining a footing in British trenches but were unable to hold them only a few minutes under a counter attack.

The Italians in the Monte Adamello zone have succeeded in occupying trenches in the sector between Crozzon di Pankorid and Crozzon di Lares, which are of great strategic value in their movement against Trent. The Italians also have made further progress against the Austrians on Mount Sperone.

French Sentiment With Poincare

By the Associated Press.

Paris, May 15.—The speech of President Poincare at Nancy on Sunday in which he declared that France did not want Germany to offer peace but desired that she should ask peace of France, is widely commented on today by the newspapers as the finest announcement of the French policy on the subject of peace. The Temps says:

"The discourse of the president of the republic is much more than an impressive oratorical manifestation and there is no need for deception either at Berlin or in the capitals of neutral countries where the idea of eventual mediation is entertained among those without authority and without responsibility. The president's address expresses the sentiments profoundly rooted in the hearts of all good Frenchmen and against which no questionable maneuver will ever prevail. The entire French people are resolved to fight until they obtain a peace re-establishing vested rights and giving guarantees of equilibrium and stability."

Trans-Continental Aeroplane Route Through Waco

By the Associated Press.
New York, May 15.—The trans-continental aeroplane competition, for which prizes have been offered by the Aero club of America and individuals interested in aeronautical development started from New York September 2, it was announced tonight. No definite decision has been reached as to the route but it was said the aerial highway probably will be laid out through Philadelphia and proceedings by way of either of Baltimore and Washington or Harrisburg, Pa.

From Pittsburgh the route may follow the Lincoln highway through central Ohio and then swing northward through Cleveland and South Bend to Chicago. From Chicago the route probably will run through St. Louis, thence through Kansas City and Oklahoma or through Arkansas to Dallas, Waco, Fort Worth, Austin and San Antonio.

From San Antonio to El Paso the fliers will proceed within sight of the Grand and then westward along the Mexican border through Tucson and Yuma and by way of San Diego, Cal., to Los Angeles, and possibly San Francisco.

Cocoon Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain purified coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get multifid coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

Ulsterists Still Strong Against Home Rule

By the Associated Press.

Belfast, May 15.—Stubborn disinclination to accept anything in the way of a government which might imply the future subjection of Ulster to home rule was evident today on the occasion of Premier Asquith's visit to Belfast which lasted only a few hours. So far as can be learned the premier's conference with a large body of representative Ulster men was disappointing.

It is understood that the question of the general disarmament of forces in Ireland not authorized by the government was discussed and although those present were pledged to secrecy it is rumored that cold water had been thrown on the proposal. The discussion was very full and frank but it is asserted that the result was unsatisfactory.

Sir Edward Carson's telegram to the six Ulsterist Councils to the effect that he had no knowledge of rumors respecting the government of Ireland did not bring about an alleviation of the situation. Belfast itself did not show any signs of accepting the compromise which it is understood Mr. Redmond is ready to offer. Ulster's capital was almost entirely unaffected by the recent rebellion and the provisions of martial law have not been enforced.

Everything is outwardly calm but the keenest interest underlies the surface appearance and many Ulsterists declare their determination to have no dealings with the Nationalists. All the newspapers in Belfast advise caution in regard to any promises the premier may have made but which are not yet published.

Mr. Asquith returned to Dublin tonight where it is reported further courtmartialing will be conducted openly.

To Take Morin to San Antonio.
By the Associated Press.

Kingsville, May 15.—Colonel Morin, a leader of a proposed Mexican uprising in Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, now in jail here, probably will be taken to San Antonio Wednesday for a preliminary hearing before the United States commissioner there. It was stated by officers here tonight that arrests continued in the alleged plot and while the number of Mexicans taken into custody is not known here, it is reliably stated twenty-seven men are in the Kibbick county jail in addition to several arrested at other places.

The Poor Also Have Gout.

St. Louis' city hospital, a charitable institution, reports the treatment of sixty-two cases of gout within the last year. This seems to explode a hoary tradition. Gout long has been thought exclusively a rich man's disease. One of the celebrated blessings of poverty was immunity from gout. Gout was supposed to be one of the punishments visited by the excellent law of compensation upon the rich man who indulged in high living at the expense of his down-trodden brother.

We shall have to recast our values. Gout that once called up the vision of a testy old plutocrat, full of ancient port and young capon, now may bring to mind a thin pauper on a bed of pain in a charity hospital. Novelists can no longer use gout only as a "property" in scenes involving cruel rich uncles or reactionary noblemen with mad tempers and worse morals. They may now depict the gouty beggar as well as the gouty prince.—Chicago News.

MARION KING WILL HELP 100 FRIENDS

Back in Ohio—Tells About Florida Climate and Other Things.

On account of the Florida climate Mr. King, a well known boat owner of Cleveland, Ohio, went to Jacksonville to try and recover from a case of pneumonia that left him weak and debilitated and with scarcely any heart action. His home in Jacksonville is 210 Cedar street.

Mr. King gave quite an interesting interview as follows: He said that he had enjoyed the climate very much, but it did not restore him to health. He, however, had found one thing that had and it was natural Vitalitas. "It has put me on my feet and I now feel strong in every way," King says, and he adds: "Two dollars invested in Vitalitas has done what thousands of dollars have failed to do before. I am going to return to my dear ones at home a new man."

Mr. King also stated that he would send at least one hundred names of his friends from back home, whom he knew could be benefited by Vitalitas, and money enough to purchase a supply for them, as he wants to see them get the benefit of this new product.

There are thousands of people throughout the south who are just as enthusiastic about Vitalitas as is Mr. King. There is no medicinal product that is doing so much to banish chronic indigestion, rheumatism, biliousness and nervous debility as this natural remedy. For sale by Powers-Kelly Drug Co. and all other druggists.

Alpine Sheriff Asks for Troops

By the Associated Press.
Alpine, Tex., May 15.—Alarmed by reports of threatened Mexican raids, Sheriff Walter of this county wired Governor Ferguson today asking that troops be sent to Terlingua, sixty-five miles south of Alpine and twenty miles from the border.

Conditions are such that County Judge Turney has suspended all public schools in that section and the last school teacher, a woman, arrived here today.

Officer Fired On in Reservation

Patrolman Cisco was fired on in the restricted district last night by two men who had been beaten up a woman and who ran at his approach. The officer called on the men to stop, but instead they turned and shot at him, the bullets going wild. Cisco then fired at them, his shots merely making them go faster. The police are looking for the would-be "mad men."

A FEARLESS PHYSICIAN

Such a physician recently remarked: "The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over diseases of women is not because it is a stimulant, not because it is a palliative, but simply because it contains the very elements needed to tone up the female system and strengthen the depleted organism." Of course that is so, otherwise it could not succeed as it has.

No Part Taken in Guarding Negro by Barney Goldberg

Members of the crowd which took Jean Washington away from the officers yesterday morning almost made a serious mistake last night, somebody having spread the rumor that Barney Goldberg had struck two men with a gun in attempting to defend the negro, injuring one of them badly. Vengeance was threatened against Goldberg, who, as it transpired, was not at the courthouse at all.

V. E. Stovell of Robinson, who saw the occurrence in question, made the following statement last night:

"I saw the man who struck two men in the crowd which was taking the negro to the square. I know the man personally and he is not Barney Goldberg or any of Sheriff Fleming's deputies. I helped take the gun away from the man, who lives several miles south of Waco."

Goldberg said, "I don't see how anybody thought I had anything to do with the occurrence. I never left my store at all this morning, was not at the courthouse at all and had nothing whatever to do with the matter."

Goldberg's statement is borne out by a large number of persons, some of whom were in his store during the time the negro was being taken to the square.

Submarine in Collision.
Washington, May 15.—A collision off the Delaware breakwater between the submarine K-2 and the steamer Armon, in which neither was apparently severely injured, was reported today to the navy department.

To Courtmartial MacNeill.
Dublin, May 15.—A courtmartial soon will be called to try John MacNeill, president of the Sinn Féin volunteers and professor of law in the National university. It is announced that he will be allowed to be represented by counsel.

Try Magnesia For Stomach Trouble

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity. Prevents Food Fermentation.

Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried pepper, bismuth, soda, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.

But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic just try the effect of a little magnesia—not the ordinary carbonate, citrate, oxide or sulphate, but the pure bisulphate of magnesia which you can obtain from practically any drug-gist in either powdered or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in your stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat.

You will find that, provided you take a little bisulphate of magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger or pain or discomfort to follow and moreover over the continued use of the bisulphate of magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion.

Many Want Tickets to G O P Convention in Chicago

By the Associated Press.
Chicago, May 15.—Officials of the republican national convention which meets here June 7 declared today that the demand for tickets to the gathering is unprecedented. Seats have been provided for 12,400 persons in the coliseum and although the convention is three weeks off forty thousand applications have been received for tickets of admission. Requests have come from every state and from London, Eng., Alaska, Hawaii, Porto Rico and Cuba.

The 12,400 tickets will be distributed under the following order: Delegates, 991; guest tickets, one to each delegate, 991; alternates, 991; press, 650. Chicago's share as convention city, 2210.

Ten members sub-committee on arrangements of the national republican committee 200 each, 2000; fifty-three members national republican committee, 15 to 20 each; presidential candidates and other distinguished guests, 200.

Of the 12,400 seats 9,400 will be on the main floor and 3,000 in the balcony and special, mezzanine. The temporary chairman and other officers of the convention and their assistants and members of the committee will occupy seats on the spectators' platform at the south end of the coliseum.

Bag of the spectators' platform will be two thousand seats for distinguished guests. On either side of the spectators' platform will be the 558 seats for working newspaper men.

The rest of the space on the main floor will be reserved for visitors.

The committee has had tickets printed for six days session.

Experts Approve Wine of Cardui

By the Associated Press.
Chicago, May 15.—Medical experts, obstetricians, trained nurses, physicians and patients gave testimony favorable to Wine of Cardui today in the libel suit against the American Medical association. Dr. Francis E. Thornton of Chicago, said that in thousands of confinement cases he had used Viburnum Prunifolium, one of the ingredients of Wine of Cardui.

"Would a dose of this medicine containing forty-eight drops of alcohol have any harmful effect if given in medical doses?" he was asked.

"No."

A number of depositions testifying to the merits of Wine of Cardui were read into the record. Mrs. G. W. Saturday, trained nurse, of Savannah, Ga., deposed that she had given it to patients, that it was used by herself and her mother and she had never heard of any one becoming addicted to its use. She and her mother, she deposed, gained relief and strength from it.

Buchanan to Get an Early Trial

By the Associated Press.
New York, May 15.—Congressman Frank Buchanan and others charged with conspiring to violate the Sherman anti-trust law by inciting strikes among munition workers in this country are to be given an early trial in federal court. It was announced here today by responsible government officials after a conference in the offices of United States District Attorney Snowden Marshall.

The congressman Buchanan preferred impeachment charges against Mr. Marshall sometime ago it was announced that the trial would go over to the fall term. The decision today came as a surprise.

Last week it was decided that Congressman Buchanan was to file similar motions through his chief counsel, former Senator J. W. Bailey of Texas. It was learned today, however, by the responsible officials that the former senator has abandoned this intention.

The government, it was declared, is eager to bring the case to trial in view of the fact that the new and allegedly startling evidence had been uncovered.

Border Patrol Is Being Reorganized

By the Associated Press.
San Antonio, May 15.—Major General Frederick Funston and his chief of staff, Major Malvern Hill-Barnum, worked out many details today of the plan of re-organization of the border patrol while reports from General Pershing and from the Big Bend district serve to emphasize how incidental the American operations south of the border have become. General Pershing's troops drew closer together and gave no sign that early resumption of the chase of Francisco Villa was contemplated. Colonel Hilkey is driving his little command of cavalry some sixty miles south of Douglas, but at headquarters little hope that he will capture the bandits or rescue Jesse Deemer, whom they carried away, is displayed.

The safeguarding of the Southern Pacific railway from here to El Paso was decided upon today and as quickly as possible troops will be sent to every bridge along the line.

In the event of military operations on a big scale the use of that railway would be imperative. For a great part of the distance the line runs near the Rio Grande, and, unless guarded, its cutting would be comparatively simple.

Agents of the department of justice talked with General Funston regarding the plans for riding across the border near Brownsville and representatives of owners in that district also made representations to him.

Weather is Varied Over Texas

By the Associated Press.
Fort Worth, May 15.—Reports from West Texas towns tonight indicated weather extremes in the past twenty-four hours which established records for this season of the year. At Gainesville, after a period of excessively high temperature for May, the thermometer fell almost to the freezing point. Brownwood reported similar weather, with almost blizzard conditions prevailing late tonight. A hail storm did much damage in the vicinity of Dallas.

Rains on South Atlantic.
Washington, May 15.—The southern storm disturbance is still over Northern Florida with diminishing intensity, attended only by moderate winds and rains along the South Atlantic coast. The weather bureau announced tonight.

COLORED TROOPS GUARD VILLISTA PRISONERS IN MEXICO

Several members of Villa's bandit band that raided Columbus, N. M., have been captured by the American forces in Mexico. Three of them, guarded closely by colored American troopers, are shown in this stockade near the American camp at Namiquipa, Mexico.

SUMMARY OF WAR

By the Associated Press.

Little heavy fighting is in progress in any of the various war theaters.

The French in the Meuse hills to the east of Verdun in a surprise attack have cleared the Germans from trenches over a front of about 200 yards. Bombardments are taking place around Verdun.

Along the British line in France bombardment and sapping operations are being carried out at various points. East of Loos the Germans succeeded in gaining a footing in British trenches but were able to hold them only a few minutes under a counter attack.

The Italians in the Monte Adamello zone have succeeded in occupying trenches in the sector between Crozzon di Pankorid and Crozzon di Lores, which are of great strategic value in their movement against Trent. The Italians also have made further progress against the Austrians on Mount Sperone.

Attacks by the Austrians to the north of Lenzuzo were repulsed by the Italians.

Little fighting of moment is going on between the British and the Russians in Russian territory except artillery duels.

In the Caucasus region the Russians are continuing their advance against the Turks, according to Petrograd. The British prime minister, who has been in conference with the Ulsterites at Belfast, it is reported from that city, received little encouragement in his efforts to bring the Ulsterites and nationalists to an agreement with respect to the government of Ireland.

Ulsterists Still Strong Against Home Rule

By the Associated Press.

Belfast, May 15.—Stubborn disinclination to accept anything in the way of a government which might imply the future subjection of Ulster to home rule was evident today on the occasion of Premier Asquith's visit to Belfast which lasted only a few hours. So far as can be learned the premier's conference with a large body of representative Ulster men was disappointing.

It is understood that the question of the general disarmament of forces in Ireland not authorized by the government was discussed and although those present were pledged to secrecy it is rumored that cold water had been thrown on the proposal. The discussion was very full and frank but it is asserted that the result was unsatisfactory.

Sir Edward Carson's telegram to the Ulster Unionists Council to the effect that he had no knowledge of rumors respecting the government of Ireland did not bring about an alleviation of the situation. Belfast itself does not show any signs of accepting the compromise which it is understood Mr. Redmond is ready to offer. Ulster's capital was almost entirely unaffected by the recent rebellion and the provisions of martial law have not been enforced.

Everything is outwardly calm but the keenest interest underlies the surface appearance and many Ulsterites declare their determination to have no dealings with the Nationalists. All the newspapers in Belfast advise caution in regard to any promises the premier may have made but which are not yet published.

Mr. Asquith returned to Dublin tonight where it is reported further courtmartialing will be conducted openly.

To Take Morin to San Antonio.

By the Associated Press.

Kingsville, May 15.—Colonel Morin, alleged leader of a proposed Mexican uprising in Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, now in jail here, probably will be taken to San Antonio Wednesday for a preliminary hearing before the United States commissioner there, it was stated by officers here tonight.

Arrests continued in the alleged plot and while the number of Mexicans taken into custody is not known here, it is reliably stated twenty-seven men are in the Kleberg county jail in addition to several arrested at other places.

INDOOR LIFE MAKES FAT

TRY OIL OF KOREIN TO KEEP WEIGHT DOWN, OR TO REDUCE SUPERFLUOUS FAT.

People who are confined within doors and who are deprived of fresh, invigorating air and exercise must take precaution to guard against stoutness, as fat acquired by indoor life is unhealthy and a danger to the vital organs of the body.

Lack of exercise in the fresh air said to weaken the oxygen carrying power of the blood, so that it is unable to produce strong muscles and vitality and the organism of inactivity and unhealthy fat is the result.

If you are 16 or 20 pounds above normal weight you are daily drawing on your reserve strength and are constantly lowering your vitality by carrying this excess burden. Any persons who are satisfied in their mind that they are too stout are advised to go to Morrison Drug Co., or a good druggist and get a box of Oil of Korein and take one after each meal and one just before retiring at night.

Even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight, improved digestion and a return of the old energy, footstep become lighter and the shadowy, flabby appearance as superfluous fat disappears.

Oil of Korein is inexpensive, cannot injure, and helps the digestion. Any person who wants to reduce 15 or 20 pounds is advised to give this treatment a trial.

Cocoanut Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain muscified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can buy for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich creamy lather and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get muscified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

The Poor Also Have Gout.

St. Louis' city hospital, a charitable institution, reports the treatment of sixty-two cases of gout within the last year. This seems to explode a hoary tradition. Gout long has been thought exclusively a rich man's disease. One of the celebrated blessings of poverty is immunity from gout. Gout was supposed to be one of the punishments visited by the excellent law of compensation upon the rich man who indulged in high living at the expense of his down-trodden brother.

We shall have to recast our values. Gout that once called up the vision of a testy old plutocrat, full of ancient port and young capon, now may bring to mind a thin pauper on a bed of pain in a charity hospital. Novelists can no longer use gout only as a "property" in scenes involving cruel rich uncles or reactionary noblemen with mad tempers and worse morals. They may now depict the gouty beggar as well as the gouty prince.—Chicago News.

Such a physician recently remarked:

"The wonderful power of Lydia E. Of course that is so, otherwise it could not succeed as it has.

THE GROCERY SO DIFFERENT

Editor Christian Advocate to Speak in Waco in June

On invitation of Rev. H. L. Munger, pastor of the Morrow Street Methodist church, Dr. W. D. Bradford, editor of the Texas Christian Advocate, will come to Waco the first Sunday in June, and will deliver two sermons in the city on that date.

Dr. Bradford will preach at the Morrow Street Methodist church in the morning and at Fifth Street at night. He is a very strong preacher, and will doubtless have very large audiences at each service.

Rev. H. C. Munger, who has been pastor of the Morrow Street Methodist church for five months, has had additions to the church each and every Sunday that he has been there, and has added since his pastorate 115 new members, a remarkable showing.

City Mission Board Will Meet Today

The City Mission board will meet in regular session Tuesday morning at 10 a. m. at the Co-operative Home, 1118 Franklin street.

This is the last meeting before Miss Jackson's vacation. She leaves on May 15 for South Carolina for a stay of three weeks. She will then come back through Waco, stop off for a short time, and then go to San Francisco to her new field of work, the Elizabeth Inn. Miss Jackson has done a great work in Waco, not alone in simply managing the home, but in the organization and systematization which she has initiated, and it is with regret that those connected with the institution see her leave, yet every effort will be made to see that there is no lack in supplying the place and keeping everything up to a high standard of efficiency.

Many Troop Trains Pass Through Waco

A troop train, the fourth of a lot of trains which have been passing through Waco over the Katy since 8:30 Sunday night, went south out of this city at 8:30 yesterday morning, having paused here a short while on its journey from New York.

This shows the distance from which troops are being moved towards the scene of disturbance in Mexico. There were sixteen coaches in one of the trains Sunday night, and mixed cars made up most of the others which went through here at night, while the one going through yesterday morning over the Katy contained about twenty cars, six of them tourist sleepers, some of the others containing horses, mules, artillery, camp equipment, etc.

It is not known whether any other trains will pass through to the scene of the trouble on the border and below, but it is thought that probably most of them have moved in that direction already, and that probably not many will follow.

Band Stand Will Be Erected at Edgefield

"I am having everything made ready to erect a nice bandstand and pavilion at the Edgefield park, and when these shall have been completed, am going to have a picture made and send it to Mr. Owens, who formerly owned the park site," said Commissioner J. D. Harlow yesterday.

Mr. Owens recently wrote a letter to the Morning News regarding the turning of the old Owens home site into a park, and showed so much commendable sentiment regarding the matter that the attention of Commissioner Cookcroft was attracted by it, and he intends to gratify the writer by sending the picture of the transformed ground to Mr. Owens.

The ground of the park has been reduced in size, as it was thought better to have a smaller park and keep it up in good form than to have a large park not well kept.

BAYLOR ROUND TABLE HAS SUNSET OUTING

More than sixty fathers, mothers and the little folks, with an occasional visitor into Baylor ranks, made the annual sunset supper with the round table out at Cameron park. While no features of special note prevailed, the outing was a continuous pleasure, to say nothing of the bountiful supper in the open. The round table is now adjourned until early autumn.

MISS YVONNE MURPHEY HAS SOCIAL ATTENTIONS

The visit of Miss Yvonne Murphy from Charlottesville, West Virginia, a round of social courtesy already, promises the same until her departure for summer home in the east.

As announced, Miss Marian Duncan

entertains with morning bridge on Wednesday.

On Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Ira Seley has al fresco pleasure at the Fish Pond for Miss Murphy.

Also Mrs. W. W. Seley is forming motor party for dinner in Marlin and drive home in the moonlight.

WOMEN'S SATURDAY GOLF CLOSED FIRST ROUND

Mrs. John C. Ray's winning score of Saturday made a change in score for the women golfers. Mrs. L. C. Moore, Jr., had led over other contestants but the coming in of Mrs. Ray and the good strokes of Miss Margaret Gorman, reduced Mrs. Moore to tie with Miss Gorman.

That, on Wednesday morning Miss Gorman and Mrs. Moore contest on the links for the H. P. Smith cup. Sixteen contestants were in the Saturday game.

In the meantime the Mesdames Harold Shear and Luke Moore, Jr., return from Fort Worth full of enthusiasm for the State women's golf association. They report seventy-five entries from all parts of Texas and great enthusiasm. The winner, a woman from San Antonio, insists that she deserved to have been coming from the north, she had been on the links all her life. Fort Worth hospitality was generous and the meeting, not only transient success, but full of promise for the women golfers of Texas. Houston has the meet next spring.

MRS. HARVEY RICHEY FOR MISS YVONNE MURPHEY

The last bridge pleasure of Saturday found the attractive home of Mrs. Harvey Richey made more attractive for the coming of society girls and matrons. These had been invited to spend an hour among five bridge tables in compliment to the home guest, Miss Yvonne Murphy of West Virginia.

Providing for three prices, which fell to the honoree, Miss Richey anticipated the summer ingerie case. In providing her luncheon she anticipated the summer game, but as said, an attractive one. Those playing were the Misses Marian Duncan, Sallie Thompson, Alice Bain of Galveston, Louise Baker, Anne Fisher, Ethel Foster, Frances Hayes, Hallie Groce of Waxahachie, Pauline McLendon, Dorothy Lake and Mazie Turner, with the Mesdames Carroll, Adrian Moore, Irwin Colgan, William Brazelton, J. D. Willis and Rives Posten Halsey, calling for the last hour were the Mesdames W. W. Seley, Chapin Seley, Ira Seley, John B. Fisher and Miss Regia Flanagan.

BE KIND TO ANIMALS WEEK HAS COME UPON US

Does every woman realize that in the wake of the be kind to mother observance, this week is the "Be Kind to Animals" week? The sentiment gathered about Mothers' Day is sweet. This should be pre-eminent. But those same principles, love, respect, sympathy with mother, can be cultivated by kindness to brutes. The toiling horse, with harness cutting into his sides, and bit cruelly applied to his mouth, the horse thirsty, half fed, is there not a word from every woman on our streets against this cruelty to the patient, toiling beast who can only drop dead in his tracks, because he has no voice with which to make his appeal? The dog days are coming. Is the dog clipped so that he will not suffer from the heat? Is his collar loose, so that fleas will not breed under it and torture him with their bite? Has he a place to get fresh water? Is the house cat to be left to starve while my selfish lady goes away for summer pleasure? Every single woman and child, whether affiliated with a humane society or not, can observe "Be Kind to Animals Week" in her own home. The nation, and the governors of all states have issued proclamation that this humane week be observed. Every minister in the land is exhorting to promulgate humane principles from his pulpit.

Society Notes

And has it come to this, that the women of present day dress shall be said to halt on the thin edge of scandal and pneumonia?

Waco women with the automobile habit, and these are scores upon scores must devise some way of keeping under control the stray locks, flying country drives sends these locks flying. We suggest a cap after the manner of the bathing fluff, something made of finest material, to be worn after sunset.

Soon we will begin to tell of wonderful things done by the Welfare League. And when we do, we must not forget that the idea of the league originated with a woman.

Mrs. J. M. Hale is incoming president of the Press Club.

It has been said for a long time that the Englishman has no sense of humor. It is then that Charlie Chapman, born in the dominion of John Bull, is the greatest comedian of this day?

How expressive was our local advertiser on Sunday when he said, "Add more love to your house." Too many of us have the house, but we fail to study how it can be made "homey."

Miss Maud Brown of West Washington who went down to take place on dance program of the Brenham Mai Fest was also participant in a house party given with eight visitors to Miss Margaret Bozeman.

Recent changes in residence have made Mrs. Guthrie from West Washington matron in cottage near Cameron park. Mrs. Guthrie is former Galvestonian.

Miss Mary Gorman who is at school in Lockport, New York, spent the past week in New York City. Before returning home for her vacation, she will have visit with Miss Florence Patten in Rochester.

Surely Waco women desire to be in the city class with their department of the Morning News. This means they must provide guest list for everything. No item is considered complete these days unless there is a human touch about it.

What a happy idea, that of the Columbus Street Baptist Sunday school in leaving telegram at door to add Mothers' Day joy to every home in the congregation.

Just another week and we will find who has the prettiest home garden in the Rotary contest. In the meantime, how many window boxes will be placed in the down town shops for that phase in the civic contest. We notice the bank, Sixth and Franklin, is growing a simple box of wandering Jew. Yet, this is cooling and refreshing.

In her assembly of garden party guests this evening, Miss Dorothy Finley honors Miss Mary Alice Cochran of Houston, present guest of Miss Louise Baker, out at Jack Hill Inn.

Miss Lucy May Johnson will travel in interest of Gunston Hall, Washington City, during the summer months. It is present intention of Mrs. S. E. Stratton of West Austin to spend the coming week in San Antonio.

It is now nearing season to forecast debutante gaiety for next winter. June days bring the last school days for a number of attractive Waco girls. It is not timely to make complete list but, assured, as 1916 debutantes are the Misses Edwina Sturges, Mildred Fort, Lalla Fay Lacy, Nancy Joy Brazelton, Marrie Seale Cooper and Virginia Robe. Miss Anne Hamilton who was anticipated takes another year at "the State."

While the blue bird in literature and art says nothing of the drama, has held sway for some time, this symbol of happiness, so susceptible to graceful poise and effective coloring, seems just coming into society favor.

State delegates all at home from their various women's conventions, it is next in order to attend from Waco to go to the greatest women's gathering of the world, the biennial of the General Federation of Women's The Texas special leaves Dallas on Friday evening. Expected to attend from Waco are the Mesdames W. E. Spell, F. L. Christman, H. S. McCall, J. Wright, Alfred Godshaw, and the Misses Kate Friend and Decca Lamar West.

By way of reminder once again, sweat the fly yourself; but more, provide your maid of the kitchen with a sewer and see that she applies this diligently. Remember once again every single fly killed in your own home is two million flies prevented in your neighbor's home.

E. D. McCall of Houston is early westward of Mrs. C. E. Smith, West Washington.

Miss Eleanor Cameron was hostess in informal week end vacation dance on Saturday evening.

Following her operation for appendicitis in Shiner two weeks ago, Mrs. F. G. Guitard of South Seventh street returned home on Monday.

Society Personals

Among departures for today will be that of Mrs. Turner who returns home to Dublin after a visit with Mrs. H. K. Brewer on Columbus street.

Mrs. J. H. Lockwood of North Sixth street has returned from Dallas.

Miss Pauline Robinson of North Sixth street spent the last week end at home in Reagan.

Miss Agnes Hall of Sanger avenue is with friends in Dallas.

Mrs. L. A. Crowl, Fourteenth and Washington, is recent visitor to Marlin.

Miss Mabel Chambers, Fourteenth and Columbus, is in Houston for two weeks.

Miss Hallie Groce, who visited Mrs. Rives Posten Halsey, Columbus street, has returned home to Waxahachie.

Mrs. Edlin, after a visit with her mother, Mrs. M. M. Patten, at the Kyle, has returned home to St. Louis accompanied by her sister, Miss Margaret Patten.

Mrs. D. S. Eddins and Miss Virginia Eddins of Washington street, have returned home from a visit to St. Louis.

Mrs. W. B. Brazelton of Austin avenue will be down from her visit in Haskell this morning.

Mrs. William Holt of West Washington is at home from Dallas.

Mrs. T. D. Hays of Austin avenue returned home on Monday. She spent a few days in Temple and Belton.

Mrs. Allan Sanford of West Austin, who was week end visitor to Fort Worth, returned home on Monday, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. N. H. Williams, of Birmingham, Ala.

Miss Frances Boddie of West Austin returned home from Dallas on Monday.

Miss Enrique Smith of West Washington, is guest of her aunt, Mrs. Hunter Harris, Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Murphy of Highland were motor guests to Temple on Sunday. They were accompanied home by Miss Maud Murphy.

Miss Zoe Fitzhugh, Sixteenth and West avenue, goes today for a week's visit in Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Marshall of West Austin are in Mineral Wells for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Barker of Brook avenue with their niece, Miss Grace Frazell of Riesel, joined the Confederate special for Birmingham, Ala. They will be absent a month visiting several Southern cities.

Here's a Puzzle in Men's Clothing

It is stated that the tailors around the big department stores and some of the other houses carrying dry goods and clothing have been busier recently with the way of making alterations than have the women who make alterations for the women; this is the first time, so it is said, that this has happened in Waco for a long while, and the reason is being sought by the business men who are having this experience.

One reason advanced is that the men felt the pressure of the hard times which have prevailed before the women did, and that they did not buy as much new clothing as usual, the result being that with the coming of this spring they found their wardrobes exhausted and depleted to a point where they just had to stock up, while the women, having bought a little more last year than their husbands, saw a chance to make over some of their wearables and still present a good appearance, without laying quite as heavy a tax on the family purse as they expected.

The matter is one which is rather interesting, as it has been long since the men appeared to be thinking more of their clothing than the women, and the question is whether it is little outcropping of vanity, or whether, as suggested above, their wearing apparel had run down to a point where it had to be replenished.

Progressive Methods Mark Sunday School at Columbus Baptist

Last week the Columbus Street Sunday school inaugurated a new plan to increase the attendance. Sunday the officers of the school had to note the way the plan was working out. The entire lower floor of the church was filled with students and visitors. The attendance was one of the largest this year.

Due to the preliminary work necessary in organizing the teams and familiarizing the workers with the plans of the campaign the results obtained yesterday are naturally less than are expected for the rest of the year. In order to take care of the increase in the attendance during the past few weeks it has become necessary for the Columbus Street church to build additional quarters for the classes. To do this a frame building has been erected back of the church and some of the classes whose old classrooms were inadequate to accommodate their attendance have been moved into the new building.

Supt. D. F. Wallace, through his campaign manager, Hoffman Baines, sent out several hundred telegrams to people in the city inviting them to Sunday school Sunday.

It is believed that this Sunday school has the largest deaf and dumb class of any school in Central Texas. To Mrs. O. M. Weatherly is due the credit for organizing and teaching this class.

MOTHERS ARE REMEMBERED SUNDAY.

Following a meeting Sunday of the Young Business Men's class, Tom M. Hamilton asked the young men to see if they could not brighten the life of some mother whose cheeks were furrowed by the passage of time and care.

A number promised to do so. In order to do his full part, Mr. Hamilton called for volunteers with autos to take some of the mothers of Waco for a ride, in order to give them a glimpse of the green hillsides and the beautiful country hereabouts. There were liberal responses, and Mr. Hamilton went to the Old Woman's Home in South Waco, got all those who were able to go for a drive, and the autos went with them to the country hereabouts and through portions of the city to the occupants of the machines being treated to ice cream.

It was one of the happiest afternoons of my life," said Mr. Hamilton in speaking of the matter, and from all accounts it was also a happy afternoon for the old ladies who went on the drive.

GOSSARD CORSETS Fitted on Living Models

Since the first announcement of the fact that we were going to show a moving picture film of corset fittings, we have had no end of inquiries about this special matinee for women only.

This Film Will Be Shown at Queen Theatre

Today—11 a. m. to 6 p. m.

We are one of the first distributors of Gossard Corsets to show this film. The story was written by a feature writer for the Es-sanay Company and part of the film shows an interior of this studio. The part that will interest you most, however, is the actual fitting of

Gossard Corsets on Living Models

You can see just how many different types of figures are transformed into beautiful figures through the correct fitting of a Gossard Corset. Every figure type shown in the film can be correctly fitted at this store.

Women Only—No Men Admitted.

The full regular program of pictures will be shown in addition to this special feature. Prices same as usual.

The following was written in 1905 and published in Holland's Magazine for April, 1916:

"Vengeance is Mine, Saith the Lord"

(BY E. G. SENTER.)

Jehovah spake and whirling worlds, afraid,
The behest of his wrathful voice obeyed;
I give; I take away; I punish; I reward;
One Law Supreme—but one Omnipotent Lord;
Let puny worms upon their bellies crawl;
Nor dare forget that they are sinners—all;
The Sleepless Eye—shall it not justly scan
The crimson fancy of rebellious man?
His law a fiction and his truth a shred;
His worship pretense and his Conscience dead;
Faithless and cunning—false to self and God,
Let not man judge, nor employ the chastening rod;
Offense to Me beyond his tottering sway;
Vengeance is Mine; I will in full repay.

The maddened crowd its fury feeds with flame,
Nor reck of God, nor feels the sinful shame,
Thou fool—the serpents which thy passions breed
In whirling fury on thyself shall feed—

The stoutest vessel from the simoon leans,
Quivers and moans, and in its flight careens;
Man's little world bends to each passing storm,
And man is the doubter of God's just reform;
God's law endures in tempest and in flame;
Yesterday, today, tomorrow, still the same.

"Vengeance is Mine," above the funeral pyre
Of vilest demon ever cast in fire,
The voice rings out, "Who is the presumptuous man
That dares to meddle with the Almighty's plan?
Who is the doubter of God's just reform?
Him of the dark abyss that curtains Hell,
Man's fitful wrath adds nothing to the woe
Of guilty wretch about to leap below.
Round the avenger shadows grimly draw;
Father, forgive him—he forgot Thy law.

IT SPEAKS FOR AN ANNUAL PRODUCT OF $300,000,000.

Yesterday's News was an example of the popular interest which attaches to matters agricultural. It contained more news relating to that industry in Texas than will usually be found in a half dozen issues of what are called the farm magazines. It was news of interest to the merchant, the doctor, the banker and the lawyer, as well as to the resident of a farm, because all have a vital interest in an industry which furnishes the motive power for all.

The Monday News has become an agricultural specialty—the first of its kind carrying a general, up-to-date news service. The man who reads it will know all that is going on in relation to the farms and the ranches of Texas, whose combined products represent something like $300,000,000 annually.

DAILY SHORT STORY.

HEARTS AND MOONLIGHT.

BY LOUISE OLIVER.

Mrs. Baldrige looked up from her letter to her brother came in. "Phillip here is a letter from Tom at last. I had begun to hope that his silence was portentous of something that he had been busy with other things. But if so he doesn't give any intimation of it here. Read it for yourself."

Phillip Mercer lit a cigarette and held out his hand. "Golf, boating and so on, eh? Anything but a girl? Is that the trouble, eh? I can't see why you're so blamed anxious to have him married."

"You are a living example of what I don't want him to be, Phillip."

"What? A happy, care-free bachelor of forty-six? No bad habits, no habits to a perfectly good cottillion leader, never out of sorts, ready to work overtime as a filler at all my married friends' dinner parties, passably good looking—"

"Mrs. Baldrige paid no attention. 'You know you need an anchor, Phillip. You are merely a nonentity floating around this way and never getting anywhere. When you are as old as I am you'll wish you had put in to some good port and settled down for life. Frankly, I don't want Tom to be like you. I want him to fall in love with some sweet girl and settle down. The earlier the better! What greater ambition can a man have than to devote his time to making some good woman happy?'

"Oh! Forgive me, Phil! I'm so sorry! I thought you see—I didn't know. It was all so long ago I thought it was over." She laid her hand contritely on his arm. The shadow passed from his face and he patted her hand affectionately. "It's all right, sis. I think myself it's all over—then something happens to bring it back. There! I'll love Pauline till my dying day. I can't help it. Maybe she's dead! I don't know. Nineteen years is a long time, and navy officers move around so. But she's the only person I ever cared about and I'll never marry any one now."

"Cheer up, Phillip! I'll ring for tea—you need reinforcing. My motto is: 'When a man gets melancholy—feed him. Don't doctor his liver—just fill up his stomach. Here we are—with some of Milly's raisin rolls too. Isn't that sunshine enough to make the angels sing? What a changeable day! It's like our lives. High lights and shadows! We need the shadows to appreciate the sun. I don't believe I'd like Summer Beach where Tom is!'

Phillip took a roll. "Don't you? I've about decided to go there myself and I was going to suggest that you go along."

"How impulsive you are, Phil! I don't believe you ever thought of such a thing until this minute. Of course I can't go, thank you."

"If you like, I'll undertake to be a matrimonial guide for your son. You see, I take like hot cakes wherever I go—all the mamas will introduce me to

DIAZ, MEXICO AND OUR NEURASTHENICS.

"Diaz gave Mexico the only peace it ever knew," editorializes Editor Senter of the Waco News. Yes, but what happened to Diaz? Neither oil nor copper could save him. Heart World Record.

What happened to Diaz happens to every man who, either through mental or moral decay, forgets the real nature of his trusteeship and converts it into a private asset for the benefit of himself and his coterie of hangers on.

Mexico is not a shining example of intelligence, but there were many men in Mexico who could see far enough to know that the country was being administered for private gain. They did not, as a rule, complain of that, but because they were not permitted to plant their own feet in the trough.

In its beginning, the fight on Diaz was a war of the "outs" against the "ins." He was too old and enfeebled to organize his forces, and his retinue was made up of grafters rather than of heroes. They scamped for shelter, and left him to shift as best he could.

Carraza is an honest man. That is his greatest weakness from the Mexican point of view. If he had been dishonest Villa would still be in his service. He does not hold out the prospect of plunder.

Without the help of the United States, no honest man can get control of affairs in Mexico. There are too many special interests there, and too many thieves wearing shoulder straps, for an honest man to overcome all obstacles through sheer force of his own personality.

Neither oil nor copper can save any de facto government in Mexico just now. The only force that counts is a gun with Uncle Sam behind it.

We can restore order in Mexico, or we can permit it to become a place that bats and owls will shun.

Old women suffering with neurasthenia would rather that Mexico should go to the eternal bow-wows than that their peace of mind should be disturbed. The masses of Americans do not feel that way about it.

Under existing conditions, there can be no reasonable objection to the use of the short skirt along the Rio Grande. It accelerates running.

Candidate Woods should re-read that letter of Mr. Nickels, and then study the German tactics. When they are getting ready for a general assault, their big guns make the mountains howl.

Germany sighs like a man with a hole in his pocket, and France talks like a man with two meals ahead and who doesn't care a copper whether he gets beyond them.

He came to the delta of a small river. There was no bridge across so he turned up the nearest bank, where a sandy path showed white beneath the trees. He followed the stream through the palm grove, the wonderful beauty of the night bewitching him. He kept on until the stream divided—and in the embrace of the two arms was a small green island, and on the island—a house. Moreover, across the water to his side of the little river extended an arched bridge, Japanese in style, and coming nearer, he saw that the house was a Japanese pagoda, and the miniature bushes in the moonlight and the paths and tiny pools made a wonderful garden.

Then he heard the pumping of a motor in the distance—from the direction he had come—a boat coming up stream from the sea.

The sound grew louder, and soon through the trees Philip saw a tiny launch hung with lanterns. Two people were in it, a man and a girl. Tom and Patricia!

But before he had quite recovered from his surprise something happened—the unexpected, of course. A crash like a hundred guns tore the quiet night—and there was a flash of flame. When Philip looked again the boat had disappeared, and there was no sign of its occupants.

It took only an instant for him to kick off his white shoes and dive into the water. He found Tom first—perfectly whole, but as he could tell but unconscious—and got him to shore. He dived twice for Patricia before he found her caught in the wreckage at the bottom.

The noise had brought two servants running from the house and a woman in white followed swiftly. "Patricia! Patricia, dear, where are you? Oh, what has happened? Patricia!" Philip's heart, hammering from his exertions, almost stopped beating. He knew that voice. He went over to her and took her hand in his wet one. "There has been an accident," he said simply. "But I think your daughter and her escort will soon be all right. The tank blew up, but it must have been almost empty—or—"

He stopped. The woman's eyes grew wide. "Phillip," she cried, "Phillip Mercer! To have you here now to save Patricia's life! I can't believe it." She caught his hand in both hers for an instant, then flew to the girl on the ground.

"Mother!" murmured Patricia sleepily. And just then Tom sat up. "We'll get them to the house and to bed, Phillip! Thank God you were near!" "Amén!" agreed Philip.

"It's odd how things happen," said Pauline later, in the garden. "I had just finished writing to you when the explosion occurred. Admiral Talbot has been dead a year, and I wanted you to know." "Then the man at the hotel wasn't Patricia's father?" "No, her uncle."

A week later, Mr. Baldrige received two letters which afforded her infinite satisfaction. One was from her son announcing his engagement to Patricia. In the other, her brother told of his discovery of the long-lost Pauline.

ANOTHER ST. HELENA OR ANOTHER ROMAN EMPIRE.

France meets the suggestion of peace with a declaration that cannot be misunderstood. President Poincare said in a speech evidently intended for the world:

"Neither directly nor indirectly have our enemies offered us peace. But we do not want them to offer it to submit to their conditions. We want to impose ours on them. We do not want a peace which would have imperial Germany with the power to recommence the war and keep Europe eternally menaced."

That verifies the prediction made by The News—that the war would go on until one side should be thoroughly whipped and forced to admit it.

Throughout the world the opinion is prevalent—whether correct or incorrect—that Emperor William and his counsellors, the Prussian military party, have embarked on a design no less in conception than the real conquest of the world. Most people do not believe the German people are in general sympathy with this object. They believe that the empire has thrown down the gauge to all mankind, and that the House of Hohenzollern will either be what Charlemagne and Caesar aspired to be, or that it will go the way they went.

Poincare puts the world on notice as to what it may expect.

It is either another St. Helena for a Hohenzollern, or the Roman Empire will come again.

The republican party is hesitating between Roosevelt and a war platform and Ford and a peace platform. Why not hitch them up together, and give us an old-time Billy Robinson bareback circus performance?

German statesmen were called together yesterday at Berlin to consult about devising new schemes of taxation. There's where the Texas free-grabber would shine. William needs him and we don't. Write out a pass-port, Mr. Lansing.

Roosevelt says he is prepared right now. Yet you could search his hip pocket with the assurance that you wouldn't find anything there but a bottle of perfume and an extra pair of nose glasses.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Hamilton Herald, thinks the Koelbe letters will help Colquitt, but it can't make Colquitt believe that.

Mr. Gilmore, president of "The Model License League," asserts that a man can still buy booze in Colorado towns. Well, what's he kicking about?

Soldier Boys Will Not Go Strong on Mexican Dishes

Special to the Morning News.

Washington, May 15.—If the American soldiers are forced to live on the "fat of the land" while on their expedition into Mexico they will find it decidedly lean and will have occasion to complain bitterly of the commissary, for although the neighboring republic has within its borders an extraordinary variety of food products, including most of the vegetables, fruits and cereals grown in both the temperate zone and the tropics, there is neither variety nor abundance in its northern states. A bulletin on culinary practices in the Southern republic, issued by the National Geographic society in Washington, says:

"Since the days of the Montezumas, Mexico's staff of life has taken the form of the tortillas, made of corn, which is indigenous to the country. The preparation of the tortilla is the work of the Indian women, who first boil the grain and then, while adding water, grind it to a stiff paste on a metate, or flat mortar. This paste usually is moulded with the hands into thin cakes and is cooked much after the fashion of the 'hot cake' of Dixieland.

"The frijole, or Mexican bean, frequently fried in fat, is another staple, both when served alone and when constituting an important ingredient of the famous chile con carne, a sort of goulash, compounded, customarily, of beef and beans, with a plentiful seasoning of chili, the Mexican pepper.

"The hot tamale has made its way across the border, but it does not have the same flavor when taken from a can as when the particles of meat are seasoned with pepper, mixed with corn meal, wrapped in corn 'shucks,' boiled until thoroughly cooked, and peeled out of and eaten from the shuck.

"One of the odd dishes of Northern Mexico is the pipian, made of finely ground squash-seed, boiled in a sauce pan.

ONE APPETIZER MADE: FLY EGGS.

"While the tortillas, frijoles, chile con carne and tamales, 'washed down' with liberal portions of pulque, may be considered the foundation of his menu, the peon of Southern Mexico has various appetizers which are unknown to the peon of the north. There is, for example, the 'water wheat,' which is not exactly what its name implies, but the eggs of flies. The native Mexican eats his water wheat with the same epicurean relish that the Chinese mandarin eats his expensive bird-nest. The Central African has his 'hip-popotamus,' the Canton merchant his stall-fed dog, and the West Indian his palm worms stewed in fat. The water-wheat fields are ponds in which the peon places bundles of reeds a few feet apart, so that their tops are just above the service. On these reeds or rushes the insects deposit their eggs in incredible numbers. The bundles are then removed and the 'crop' is shaken off. The eggs, resembling fine fish-roes, are made into small cakes and are sold in the markets, to be eaten either as we eat cheese or mixed with corn meal and fowl eggs. The insects themselves, which are about the size of our houseflies, are also eaten, the method of preparation being to pound them into a paste and boil with corn husks.

MANY FRUITS OF UNUSUAL KIND.

"The fruits of Southern Mexico are numerous and some of them are delicious. One of the most unusual is the papaya or melon zapote, which grows on a tree and often weighs as much as

Those Mexicans on the border who want to enlist belong in a regiment to be commanded by Brigadier General Bill Sterrett. The other name of that regiment will be the Shakespeare club, and it is going to set a high water mark in the shaker business.

If you have not already engaged in the peanut industry, you have overlooked something. If you have a back yard that is now used principally as a receptacle for tin cans and bread crumbs, plant peanuts there and observe the difference in the effect upon your constitution.

What we would like to know in order to get the range of this three-cornered controversy between Attorney General Looney, Speaker Woods and President Pope is, who is party of the first part who party of the second part, and who party of the third part?

One of the noticeable things about the senatorial race is that the candidates have managed to lay out their itineraries so that there will be no danger of a collision. Mr. Davis is the only man who seems to be looking for head-end trouble.

In order to clearly understand why the tendency to steal on the American side of the border is becoming so marked, it must be remembered that nearly everything on the Mexican side has already been stolen.

Ireland seems to be pacified, but New York is still on the rampage. One of the queer things about it is that the further away from home a son of Erin goes, the madder he gets with the British government.

A Texas farmer with a growing crop and the weeds thinned out is not as rich as Rockefeller, but he can eat more bacon and greens with less danger of dyspepsia.

Those Frenchmen have acquired a knack of shooting into the sky with such accuracy that a Zeppelin has to take the chance of butting against a star in order to enjoy its outing.

Mr. Woods is opposed to any convention endorsements. That is to say, he is opposed to them unless they are of the right sort.

Mr. Nickels' shot sounded like a shell from a centimeter. It is up to President Pope to get out his heavy artillery.

Wilbarger Man Seeks Mandamus Against Land Commissioner

By the Associated Press.

Austin, May 15.—Mandamus proceedings have been instituted in the state supreme court by W. D. Greene of Wilbarger county against Land Commissioner Robison to compel the latter to issue a permit to the relator to prospect for minerals that may be found on a section of land in Wilbarger county, on the theory that the state has reserved the mineral rights to school lands that may be sold. This is to be a test case to determine the question as to whether or not state lands sold under the land law of 1883 carry the mineral rights.

Plot to Blow Up Kingsville Bank Frustrated

By the Associated Press.

Kingsville, May 15.—What is declared to have been a plot to blow up a Kingsville bank and hardware store has been frustrated, officers say, by a number of arrests yesterday and today by Sheriff Scarborough and federal agents.

The plan was discovered, it is alleged, in the arrest of Col. Jose M. Morin, a former military officer, on a train south of San Antonio. This plan, it is alleged, was to set a barn afire in the outskirts of the city to attract people's attention, and then to blow up the bank and store.

Fifteen Mexicans are in the Kingsville jail, and it is said other arrests are expected.

Laredo Mexican Editor Arrested

By the Associated Press.

Laredo, May 15.—Leo D. Walker, Mexican editor of a local Spanish daily newspaper, is held in the county jail here in default of $5000 bond on complaint filed by the district attorney in connection with alleged anti-American articles published.

The action was based particularly on an article which it is charged characterized Mexican citizens of San Benito, Texas, who have offered their services to Governor Ferguson if needed in controlling the Mexican border situation, as "traitors" and "black Americans."

The action also seeks an injunction against future publication of similar articles by the paper.

Attempt to Wreck Troop Train Fails

By the Associated Press.

Farmers' May 15.—An attempt to wreck a troop train carrying soldiers to the Mexican border resulted in the derailment of two coaches at Copeville, a small station on the Santa Fe a few miles from here late Sunday night. Two coaches left the rails but none of their occupants was injured. Investigation developed the switch at a siding had been tampered with and the light removed. The engineer succeeded in stopping the train when he discovered it had taken the siding. County officers are looking for Mexicans seen recently in the neighborhood.

What we would like to know in order to get the range of this three-cornered controversy between Attorney General Looney, Speaker Woods and President Pope is, who is party of the first part who party of the second part, and who party of the third part?

One of the noticeable things about the senatorial race is that the candidates have managed to lay out their itineraries so that there will be no danger of a collision. Mr. Davis is the only man who seems to be looking for head-end trouble.

In order to clearly understand why the tendency to steal on the American side of the border is becoming so marked, it must be remembered that nearly everything on the Mexican side has already been stolen.

Wilbarger Man Seeks Mandamus Against Land Commissioner

By the Associated Press.

Austin, May 15.—Mandamus proceedings have been instituted in the state supreme court by W. D. Greene of Wilbarger county against Land Commissioner Robison to compel the latter to issue a permit to the relator to prospect for minerals that may be found on a section of land in Wilbarger county, on the theory that the state has reserved the mineral rights to school lands that may be sold. This is to be a test case to determine the question as to whether or not state lands sold under the land law of 1883 carry the mineral rights.

Plot to Blow Up Kingsville Bank Frustrated

By the Associated Press.

Kingsville, May 15.—What is declared to have been a plot to blow up a Kingsville bank and hardware store has been frustrated, officers say, by a number of arrests yesterday and today by Sheriff Scarborough and federal agents.

The plan was discovered, it is alleged, in the arrest of Col. Jose M. Morin, a former military officer, on a train south of San Antonio. This plan, it is alleged, was to set a barn afire in the outskirts of the city to attract people's attention, and then to blow up the bank and store.

Fifteen Mexicans are in the Kingsville jail, and it is said other arrests are expected.

Laredo Mexican Editor Arrested

By the Associated Press.

Laredo, May 15.—Leo D. Walker, Mexican editor of a local Spanish daily newspaper, is held in the county jail here in default of $5000 bond on complaint filed by the district attorney in connection with alleged anti-American articles published.

The action was based particularly on an article which it is charged characterized Mexican citizens of San Benito, Texas, who have offered their services to Governor Ferguson if needed in controlling the Mexican border situation, as "traitors" and "black Americans."

The action also seeks an injunction against future publication of similar articles by the paper.

Attempt to Wreck Troop Train Fails

By the Associated Press.

Farmers' May 15.—An attempt to wreck a troop train carrying soldiers to the Mexican border resulted in the derailment of two coaches at Copeville, a small station on the Santa Fe a few miles from here late Sunday night. Two coaches left the rails but none of their occupants was injured. Investigation developed the switch at a siding had been tampered with and the light removed. The engineer succeeded in stopping the train when he discovered it had taken the siding. County officers are looking for Mexicans seen recently in the neighborhood.

Miss Sallie Keith Gives a Very Pleasing Program to Music-Loving Friends.

Miss Sallie Keith gave a very pleasing program yesterday afternoon in Carroll chapel. She had an unusually large crowd, all of whom showed marked appreciation for every number on her program. Waco and Baylor are justly proud of this young soprano, who has been known here in musical circles since she was a little girl. When the "Forty Singers" had their organization here she was one of the prominent members, though much younger than the others, and her work then was a prophesy of her present accomplishments, which were artistically demonstrated at her recital yesterday. She has been soloist at St. Paul's and the Temple Rodeo Scholom for the past three years and was for a while soloist with the University Glee club. This year she is taking a solo part in the mixed chorus that will be given to the public during the commencement exercises in June. She has a particularly beautiful voice of extensive range and richness in quality. Under the instruction of Prof. Fred E. Eggert of Baylor she has greatly improved, in range, tone color, technique, and interpretation. These, combined with her personality, have made her easily one of the best singers in the city, as a result of which she has made a host of friends and many admirers.

Arrangements Being Made for Federal Flood Committee

According to a tentative schedule arranged last night by the Rotary and Chamber of Commerce committees for the visit of the congressional committee on rivers and harbors, the federal delegation is due to arrive in Waco at 8 p. m. Saturday, May 26, coming from Bryan, and to leave the next morning at 9 a. m. for Hearne. Entertainment will be given the committee by the Chamber of Commerce, the Y. M. B. L. and the Rotarians. SWIFT VENGEANCE WREAKED ON NEGRO AFTER JURY BRINGS IN DEATH PENALTY

lor, Jr., C. H. Machen, Frank M. Fitzpatrick, Kyle Vick and Bowden Hayes, had found places where they could within the small enclosure.

GETTING JURY IS QUICK WORK.

Then began the empanelling of the jury. In most cases only the barest legal questioning necessary was indulged by the state; three men were excused by the state, and two men by the court, one because of pressing sickness in his family, the venireman claimed, and the other on account of poor hearing. With monotonous regularity came the formal declaration of the defendant's lawyers, "Pass him back," and when the state accepted, "Swear the juror." The acceptance of the venire list as far as called: P. H. Coleman, accepted; W. H. Orlidale, accepted; G. L. Garrett, excused for sickness in his family by the court; G. W. Jones, had reached a conclusion in his mind and was excused; J. E. Ulander, excused by the state; Sam E. Smith, accepted; T. A. Hooks, accepted; W. B. Brazelton, accepted; G. B. Adams, accepted, was "not opposed to capital punishment in case of this kind," A. Bush, excused by state; E. O. Anderson, excused by the court on account of his hearing; Bryant Allen, accepted; W. H. Bonah, accepted, was "not opposed to capital punishment in case of this kind," W. B. Hayes, accepted; J. W. Blake, accepted; H. B. Johnson, accepted. The list was completed at 10:35 a. m.

Judge Munroe then read the grand jury indictment to the prisoner, and called for "guilty" or "not guilty." The prisoner hesitated, as if he did not comprehend the question addressed to him. The judge plainly asked the negro if he committed the crime, explaining to him that if he answered "guilty" it would mean hanging, life imprisonment, or not less than five years in the penitentiary. Washington's plea of guilty was a muttered "Yeah."

STATE'S EVIDENCE SHORT AND CONCLUSIVE.

Dr. J. H. Manard of Rosenthal, who had been called in to the Fryer home immediately after the tragedy, was the first witness. And he with the others that followed in quick succession told on cross examination the gruesome details of the blood-smeared hammer by the officers added a climaxing touch to the testimonies offered, all of the general details of which were contained in the signed and legally secured confession from Washington which was offered and submitted to the jurors.

Dr. Manard declared that there were at least two fractures of the cranial cavities, either of which would have resulted in death, and he stated that there were about a dozen flesh wounds on the face, neck and shoulders. The defense had no questions.

Mike T. Lively, county attorney of Dallas county, testified that the negro had been brought to the Dallas county jail by Sheriff Long of Hill county, and the confession was taken in his presence, and signed by the mark of Washington. The defense had no questions.

FIRST CONFESSION MADE AT HILLSBORO.

Sheriff Fleming testified that the negro had admitted at the conference to the Hill county jail about 3 a. m. Tuesday following the crime on Monday night, and that a conference had been held by Sheriff Fleming and himself with Washington, who from Hill county was carried to Dallas. The defense had no questions.

Some of the men and boys who were tearing around the court house like the divided waves of the sea were running with the speed of wolves or hounds it seemed, almost, and were frantic lest the officers should manage to spirit the negro away.

FIRE ALARM BRINGS DEPARTMENT OUT.

The screaming of the fire engines seemed to excite some of the members of the crowd that took the negro, or rather those who were following in the wake of those who took him, but they showed it simply by increasing the speed with which they were hastening toward the city hall square.

Among those who struck the negro on his way to the city hall was a yellow negro boy who was raised here in Waco, and as he landed a blow on Washington's head he cried, "You're getting just what's comin' to you, you nigger!"

Bystanders in court room express themselves. "One man in that crowd in the court room could cry out, 'Let's get him' and there would be no stopping the crowd," said a young doctor on the outskirts of the crowd downstairs. "In a crowd like this, one match can set off the whole box."

An old Confederate veteran said: "There are lots of people standing around here saying nothing, but if one overt act should be committed, the negro would be taken from the offi-

examination: "Who were present when the hammer was found?" Sheriff Fleming replied that beside himself there were Deputy Sheriff Lee Jenkins, County Attorney McNamara, Deputy Sheriff Joe Roberts and a Mr. Reeder, who was passing near the road.

Deputy Sheriff Jenkins on cross-examination said that Washington was arrested Monday night about 9 o'clock and that when his clothing was examined there were found spots of blood on the undershirt and on the pants. He corroborated the details of the finding of the hammer. The defense had no questions.

Chris Simond of Robinson said that his farm is close to the Fryer home and that he had seen Washington early in the morning of Monday, the day of the crime, and also a few minutes after the tragedy, when his attention was attracted by the screaming of the children. The defense had no questions.

Constable Leslie Stegall said that he had been at the Fryer home shortly after the murder and reiterated the fact that the arrest was made shortly after 9 p. m. Monday.

NEGRO SAYS "I AM SORRY."

The presence of the negro created its second thrill in the press of people when he was asked to take the stand in his own defense if he cared to. He seemed somewhat confused and hesitated between standing and sitting down in the witness chair. Attendants close up to the negro heard only the almost indistinct muttering, "I am sorry."

McNAMARA ASKS FOR DEATH PENALTY.

Frankly and briefly, County Attorney McNamara made his closing words to the jury. "The prisoner has been given a fair trial, as fair as any ever given in this court room," said the state's attorney. He explained that the young attorneys who had defended Washington did it from a standpoint of legal duty and not because there was any defense. "The facts are so clear and so convincing that no discussion is necessary," he concluded by saying that the offense was deliberate murder and death should pay for the crime.

An applause that broke into a mighty yell followed the closing argument. The defense had made no argument. The jury retired at 11:14 a. m.

In four minutes they filed back and Foreman W. B. Brazelton, member of the Waco school board and prominent business man of the city for years, read the verdict.

"We, the jury, find the defendant guilty of murder as charged in the indictment and assess his penalty at death."

The court had said not a word after the verdict was read a second time, and the officers were preparing to remove the prisoner in the moment's interim. In a flash a heavy man was climbing across the rail and piling desk with some officers crowded on the desk who tugged at him in an effort to keep him back. This was the signal. In a second all was pandemonium.

CRIES ARE SPARKS THAT SET CROWD AFIRE.

The crowd around the court house began to get restless when a cheer went up from the inside of the court room, indicating that some decisive action had been taken there—probably when the jury retired.

"Let's go in and get him!" "Throw him out of the window!" "They're going to take him out the other way—we'll have to watch all sides for him."

"Oh, we'll get him; they can't keep him from us!" These were some of the expressions heard a few minutes after that first cheer, which appeared on the outside to have been a signal and in a short time there was a big stir; men and boys were running here and there, with straining eyes and faces growing more excited each minute. Boys not more than fifteen years of age were running wildly around and around the building, either to get a better look at the scene, or else to have some part in the gruesome work ahead.

There were a number of women and girls on the court house lawn, but they at first looked on with a cold, curious, as matters progressed, though, they seemed to get accustomed to what was taking place, and some of them were soon laughing and chatting, albeit their faces were in some cases still blanched.

Some of the men and boys who were tearing around the court house like the divided waves of the sea were running with the speed of wolves or hounds it seemed, almost, and were frantic lest the officers should manage to spirit the negro away.

Some of the men and boys who were tearing around the court house like the divided waves of the sea were running with the speed of wolves or hounds it seemed, almost, and were frantic lest the officers should manage to spirit the negro away.

SOME GRAVE FACES IN THE FRANTIC CROWD.

Here and there—but rarely—some man walked with sober stride, downcast head and gave expression, talking in a subdued voice of his regret over what was taking place, declaring that if he had been there all possible every step should have been taken to spare the community the cataclysm of human passion which was turned loose within a few minutes' time.

But the average person to be seen on the street and around the hateful pyre seemed to be satisfied with what had happened or at least passively noting what was taking place.

Bystanders in court room express themselves. "One man in that crowd in the court room could cry out, 'Let's get him' and there would be no stopping the crowd," said a young doctor on the outskirts of the crowd downstairs. "In a crowd like this, one match can set off the whole box."

1819 Miles in 24 Hours

by a Hudson Super-Six

An Endurance Record Never Matched
By Any Traveling Machine

No man today—if he knows the facts—doubts the Super-Six supremacy.

At first the truth seemed like a romance. Think of one new invention, applied to a light six, adding 80 per cent to its power.

Then official records began to pile up, certified by the A. A. A. The whole motoring world then had to concede this the greatest motor built.

But many men asked, "What about the endurance? Can a motor so flexible, so speedy, so powerful, stand up in years of road use?"

So we asked Ralph Mulford to take a stock Super-Six chassis and, under official supervision, show the world its endurance.

All Records Broken

He took a Super-Six stock chassis—certified by A. A. A. officials.

It had already been driven over 2000 miles at a speed exceeding 80 miles per hour.

It had made a mile at Daytona at the rate of 102.53 miles per hour.

And he drove that car 1819 miles—equal to the distance from New York to Denver—in 24 hours of continuous driving—at an average speed of 75.8 miles per hour.

At the end of that test—after nearly 4000 miles of record-breaking strain—the car, when officially examined, showed no appreciable wear.

The best previous 24-hour record for an American stock car was 1196 miles. The Super-Six beat that by 52 per cent.

The best foreign-car record for 24 hours is 1581 miles. But that wasn't a stock car. The Super-Six beat that by 15 per cent.

How Long Will It Last?

It will be many years from now before we can tell you how long a Hudson Super-Six will last.

But the records we cite cover the greatest strains a motor car ever met. Many a great engine has gone to pieces under far lesser strain. Years of ordinary driving would never tax a

PERSONAL MENTION

M. J. Montgomery, a well known citizen of McGregor, who has many friends in Waco, was here yesterday for a while.

Dr. H. T. Aynesworth is at home from Galveston, where he attended the meeting of the Texas Medical Society.

W. E. Hansman of Houston was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ferguson of Hearne spent Sunday in Waco, returning home yesterday morning.

C. C. Edwards spent last week in Williamson county and will spend most of this week here.

N. T. Lamar of Houston was in the city yesterday.

S. J. Mings of Gatesville was on the streets of Waco yesterday.

W. P. McCoy of Arlington was in the city yesterday.

Edgar Howard of Cameron spent yesterday in Waco.

Robert L. Baldridge, for a number of years editor of the Clifton Record, motored down from Clifton for a visit in Waco yesterday.

Mrs. R. Lachman of Dallas is a guest of her niece, Mrs. J. Schonberg.

W. D. Founds left last night for Austin, where he will reside.

Mrs. J. W. Bass has gone to Chicago on a visit.

Harry Wheeler left yesterday for Chicago on a business trip.

J. W. Fall of Nashville spent yesterday in Waco.

H. Star of Dallas was on the streets yesterday.

CITY NEWS BRIEFS.

Bank employees are taking their vacations just now, and the workers who are left in the banks are having a pretty busy time of it. A good volume of business is being transacted, and it requires a fairly good sized force at each of the banks to keep up with matters.

Jere H. Gilbert will leave Waco about the first of next month for Dallas, where he will have charge of the Dallas and Fort Worth offices of the Electrical Supply company. Mr. Gilbert's family will also go to Dallas, and many friends here will wish them the best success. Mr. Gilbert is a hustling and pushing young man who has demonstrated his ability, and this recognition is one which his friends feel is well merited.

Waco traveling men generally report that business is somewhat better with in the past two or three weeks, probably the result of the splendid crop prospects which are in evidence. Crops look better than they have for some time at this season of the year insofar as the weeds are concerned, and though growth was retarded for awhile by the cool nights, this handicap is fast disappearing now that the weather has warmed up so noticeably.

In consequence of the all-around rise in prices, the state pawnshop in Vienna has announced that larger sums will be advanced than hitherto. Present holders of pawn tickets have been invited to have their pledges revalued and receive the increase in the value.

Cut the Cost of Living!

A plate of hot biscuits or muffins, a fresh, home-baked cake, a loaf of brown or nut-bread, rescues any meal from the commonplace, and more expensive things are never missed.

GETTING JURY IS QUICK WORK.

Then began the empanelling of the jury. In most cases only the barest legal questioning necessary was indulged by the state; three men were excused by the state, and two men by the court, one because of pressing sickness in his family, the venemian claimed, and the other on account of poor hearing. With monotonous regularity came the formal declaration of the defendant's lawyers, "Pass him back," and when the state accepted, "Swear the juror." The acceptance from the defense came without a moment's hesitation in each instance. The following was the venire list as far as called: P. H. Coleman, accepted; W. H. Brisdale, accepted; G. L. Garrett, accepted; W. H. Bonah, accepted; G. W. Jones, had reached a conclusion in his mind and was excused; J. E. Ulander, excused by the state; Sam E. Smith, accepted; T. A. Hooks, accepted; W. B. Brazelton, accepted; G. B. Adams, accepted; "not opposed to capital punishment in case of this kind;" A. Bush, excused by state; E. O. Anderson, excused by the court on account of his hearing; Bryant Allen, accepted; W. H. Bonah, accepted, was "not opposed to capital punishment in case of this kind;" W. B. Hayes, accepted; J. W. Blake, accepted; H. B. Johnson, accepted. The list was completed at 10:25 a. m.

Judge Munroe then read the grand jury indictment to the prisoner, and called for "guilty" or "not guilty." The prisoner hesitated, as if he did not comprehend the question addressed to him. The judge plainly asked the negro if he committed the crime, explaining to him that if he answered "guilty" it would mean hanging, life imprisonment, or not less than five years in the penitentiary. Washington's plea of guilty was a muttered "Yeah."

STATE'S EVIDENCE SHORT AND CONCISE.

Dr. J. H. Manard of Rosenthal, who had been called in to the Fryer home immediately after the tragedy, was the first witness. And he with the others that followed in quick succession told on cross examination, the gruesome story of the body of the murdered woman, with skull crushed and body criminally assaulted, which was found in a seep house about thirty yards from the Fryer home. The story of the finding of the blood-smeared hammer by the officers added a climaxing touch to the testimonies offered, all of the general details of which were contained in the signed and legally secured confession from Washington which was offered and submitted to the jurors.

Dr. Manard declared that there were at least two fractures of the cranial cavities, either of which would have resulted in death, and he stated that there were about a dozen flesh wounds on the face, neck and shoulders. The defense had no questions.

Mike T. Lively, county attorney of Dallas county, testified that the negro had been brought to the Dallas county jail by Sheriff Long of Hill county, and the confession was taken in his presence, and signed by the mark of Washington. The defense had no questions.

FIRST CONFESSION MADE AT HILLSBORO.

Sheriff Fleming testified that the negro had admitted at the conference in the Hill county jail that he had killed Mrs. Fryer and told where the death-dealing hammer could be found in a clump of high bushes across the fence from the end of the cotton rows where Washington had been plowing. He said that the iron part of the hammer was covered with blood, and a part of the handle, and that the handle had bits of cotton lint on it.

Joe Taylor for the defense asked the only question during the cross-examination: "Who were present when the hammer was found?" Sheriff Fleming replied that beside himself there were Deputy Sheriff Lee Jenkins, County Attorney McNamara, Deputy Sheriff Joe Roberts and a Mr. Reeder, who was passing near the road.

Deputy Sheriff Jenkins on cross-examination said that Washington was arrested Monday night about 9 o'clock and then when his clothing was examined there were found spots of blood on the undershirt and on the pants. He corroborated the details of the finding of the hammer. The defense had no questions.

Chris Simond of Robinson said that his farm is close to the Fryer home and that he had seen Washington early in the morning of Monday, the day of the crime, and also a few minutes after the tragedy, when his attention was attracted by the screaming of the children. The defense had no questions.

Constable Leslie Stegall said that he had been at the Fryer home shortly after the murder and reiterated the fact that the arrest was made shortly after 9 p. m. Monday.

NEGRO SAYS "I AM SORRY."

The presence of the negro created its second thrill in the press of people when he was asked to take the stand in his own defense. He came forward, seemed somewhat confused and hesitated between standing and sitting down in the witness chair. Attendances close up to the negro heard only the almost indistinct muttering, "I am sorry."

M'NAMARA ASKS FOR DEATH PENALTY.

Frankly and briefly, County Attorney McNamara made his closing words to the jury. "The prisoner has been given a fair trial, as fair as any ever given in this court room," said the state's attorney. He explained that the young attorneys who had defended Washington did it from a standpoint of legal duty and not because there was any defense. "The facts are so clear and so convincing that no discussion is necessary," he concluded by saying that the offense was deliberate murder and death should pay for the crime.

An applause that broke into a mighty yell followed the closing argument. The defense had made no argument.

The jury retired at 11:14 a. m. In four minutes they filed back and Foreman W. B. Brazelton, member of the Waco school board and prominent business man of the city for years, read the verdict.

"We, the jury, find the defendant guilty of murder as charged in the indictment and assess his penalty at death."

The court had said not a word after the verdict was read a second time, and the officers were preparing to remove the prisoner in the moment's interim. In a flash a heavy man was climbing across the rail and press desk with some officers crowded on the desk who tugged at him in an effort to keep him back. This was the signal. In a second all was pandemonium.

CRIES ARE SPARKS THAT SET CROWD AFIRE.

The crowd around the court house began to get restless when a cheer went up from the inside of the court room, indicating that some decisive action had been taken there—probably when the jury retired. "Let's go in and get him," "Throw him out of the window," "They're going to take him out the other way—we'll have to watch all sides for him," "Oh, we'll get him; they can't keep him from us."

These were some of the expressions heard a few minutes after that first cheer, which appeared on the outside to have been a signal and in a short time there was a big stir; men and boys were running here and there, with straining eyes and faces growing more excited each minute. Boys not more than fifteen years of age were running wildly around and around the building, either to get a view through curiosity, or else to have some part in the gruesome work ahead.

There were a number of women and girls on the court house lawn, but at first looked rather serious and nervous; as matters progressed, though, they seemed to get accustomed to what was taking place, and some of them began laughing and chatting, albeit their faces were in some cases still blanched.

Some of the men and boys who were tearing around the court house like the divided waves of the sea were running with the speed of wind, and frantically lest the officers should manage to spirit the negro away.

SOME GRAVE FACES IN THE FRANTIC CROWD.

Here and there—but rarely—some man walked with sober stride, downcast head and gave expression, talking in a subdued voice of his regret over what was taking place, declaring that if it had been all possible every step should have been taken to spare the community the cataclysm of human passion which was turned loose within a few minutes' time.

But the average person to be seen on the street and around the fateful pyre seemed to be satisfied with what had happened or at least passively noting what was taking place.

FIRE ALARM BRINGS DEPARTMENT OUT.

The screaming of the fire engines seemed to excite some of the members of the crowd that took the negro, or rather those who were following in the wake of those who took him, but they showed it simply by increasing the speed with which they were hastening toward the city hall square.

Among those who struck the negro on his way to the city hall was a yellow negro boy who was raised here in Waco, and as he landed a blow on Washington's head he cried, "You're getting just what's comin' to you, you d— rascal."

BYSTANDERS IN COURT ROOM EXPRESS THEMSELVES.

"One man in that crowd in the court room could cry out, 'Let's get him' and there would be no stopping the crowd," said a young doctor on the outskirts of the crowd downstairs. "In a crowd like this, one match can set off the whole box."

An old Confederate veteran said: "There are lots of people standing around here saying nothing, but if one overt act should be committed, the negro would be taken from the offi-

1819 Miles in 24 Hours by a Hudson Super-Six

An Endurance Record Never Matched
By Any Traveling Machine

No man today—if he knows the facts—doubts the Super-Six supremacy.

At first the truth seemed like a romance. Think of one new invention, applied to a light six, adding 80 per cent to its power.

Then official records began to pile up, certified by the A. A. A. The whole motoring world then had to concede this the greatest motor built.

But many men asked, "What about the endurance? Can a motor so flexible, so speedy, so powerful, stand up in years of road use?"

So we asked Ralph Mulford to take a stock Super-Six chassis and, under official supervision, show the world its endurance.

All Records Broken

He took a Super-Six stock chassis—certified by A. A. A. officials.

It had already been driven over 2000 miles at a speed exceeding 80 miles per hour.

It had made a mile at Daytona at the rate of 102.53 miles per hour.

And he drove that car 1819 miles—equal to the distance from New York to Denver—in 24 hours of continuous driving—at an average speed of 75.8 miles per hour.

At the end of that test—after nearly 4000 miles of record-breaking strain—the car, when officially examined, showed no appreciable wear.

The best previous 24-hour record for an American stock car was 1196 miles. The Super-Six beat that by 52 per cent.

The best foreign-car record for 24 hours is 1581 miles. But that wasn't a stock car. The Super-Six beat that by 15 per cent.

How Long Will It Last?

It will be many years from now before we can tell you how long a Hudson Super-Six will last.

But the records we cite cover the greatest strains a motor car ever met. Many a great engine has gone to pieces under far lesser strain. Years of ordinary driving would never tax a

CITY NEWS BRIEFS.

Bank employees are taking their vacations just now, and the workers who are left in the banks are having a pretty busy time of it. A good volume of business is being transacted, and it requires a fairly good sized force at each of the banks to keep up with matters.

Jere H. Gilbert will leave Waco about the first of next month for Dallas, where he will have charge of the Dallas and Fort Worth offices of the Electrical Supply company. Mr. Gilbert's family will also go to Dallas, and many friends here will wish them the best success. Mr. Gilbert is a hustling and pushing young man who has demonstrated his ability, and this recognition is one which his friends feel is well merited.

Waco traveling men generally report that business is somewhat better within the past two or three weeks, probably the result of the splendid crop prospects which are in evidence. Crops look better than they have for some time at this season of the year insofar as the weeds are concerned, and though growth was retarded for awhile the cool nights, this handicap is fast disappearing now that the weather has warmed up so noticeably.

In consequence of the all-around rise in prices, the state pawnshop in Vienna has announced that larger sums will be advanced than hitherto. Present holders of pawn tickets have been invited to have their pledges revalued and receive the increase in the value.

Foreign Trade Ban for America Is Urged

By the Associated Press. New York, May 15.—The establishment of an independent bank for foreign trade and of an industrial bank to serve the interests of American manufacturers were proposed in the report of the committee on banking and currency to the convention of the National Manufacturers' which opened a three day session here today.

The foreign trade bank would be formed of a community of national banks and would aid in financing the foreign business of American manufacturers, it was said.

The report declared that the currency system of the country is defective in its principle, being on a gold basis in name only and that legislation is needed to complete the system.

It asserted that if the American dollar is to take its proper place in trade at the end of the war it must be a gold dollar.

The committee on fire prevention suggested more drastic laws in regard to fires of negligent origin and recommended the enactment of laws making negligence in this matter a crime.

The report of the committee on industrial betterment announced that it opposed minimum wage laws and suggested the industrial training of workers to improve wages. The committee favored sickness insurance.

A. B. Farquhar of York, Pa., declared both the minimum wage and sickness insurance to be absurd.

"Any man, he said, 'can live healthily on five dollars a week. We are the poorest wasteful people on earth. We should teach our people their fault.'"

Farquhar added that he had tried the experiment of living on three dollars a week in 1915 and that the increased cost of living would make five dollars a week a necessity now.

Army Aeroplanes Get Machine Guns and Bomb Droppers

By the Associated Press.

Columbus, N. M., May 15.—Aeroplane machine guns and bomb dropping devices arrived here today for the use of the first aero squadron. Army aviators here denied any knowledge as to whether the planes to be sent into service in Mexico are to be equipped with the devices.

The corps has been working for several weeks with new aeroplanes in an attempt to bring the fleet into condition for field service.

Of the attack on a small body of Americans at Rancho Rubio, twenty miles from Lake Tascate, the field headquarters offered nothing to supplement press reports. However, it was pointed out that the attack indicated that small bands of the bandits still are scattered through the territory occupied by General Pershing's command.

A "dead line" was drawn about the base arsenal here today. It was said that a suspicion that incendiaries may have been responsible for the recent fires at Fort Bliss caused the added precautions here.

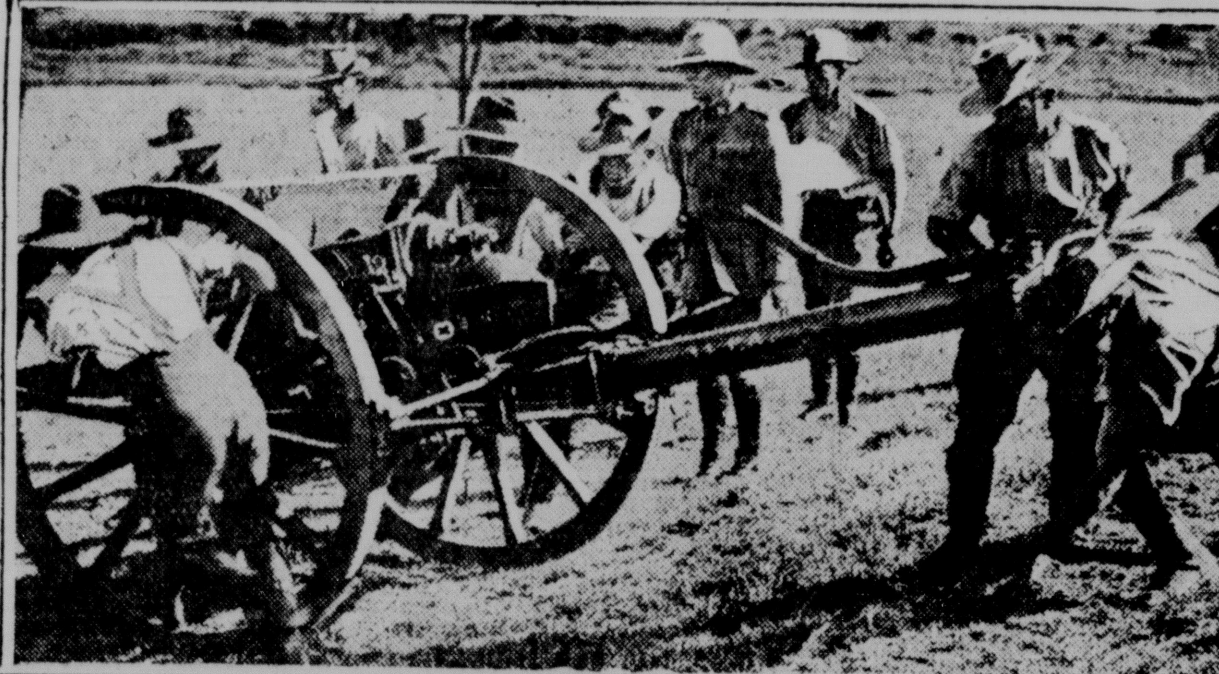

Troops to be distributed along the border passed through here today from posts in the northwest. None of them detained here.

Truckmen arriving from the front today reported all quiet along the American line of communication.

There will be a candidates' rally on the Lakeview school grounds tonight for the benefit of the school. All interurban cars stop at Lakeview and those in charge are hopeful of a good attendance. Judge Tom L. McCullough, Tom Connolly of Martinsburg, John D. Robinson of Belton, and the three candidates for congress, and all local candidates have been invited to be present.

AUSTRALIAN TROOPS EAGER FOR CHANCE TO SHOW PROWESS

Top, unlimbering and placing a gun in Liverpool camp at Sydney, Australia. Bottom, troops in training, building trenches for artillery.

Because of the poor opportunities given the Australians to show what they can do in battle, considerable disappointment has been manifested in England's big island province. These pictures, which have just arrived from Sydney, show Australian troops training hard, in the hope that they may soon be sent to the western front.

OILERS HAMMER ZINN HARD

Navigators Miss Good Chance in
Eighth When James Strikes Out
With Bases Full.

Special to the Morning News.

Beaumont, Tex., May 15.—Ollie Jost was too much for his former teammates today and the Oilers hammered Zinn when he meant runs, piling up a score of 8 to 0. Ten Navigators were left on bases, three of them in the eighth when James struck out with the bases full.

Beaumont began scoring in the second inning. Zinn was fairly steady, walking one man and hitting Dodd with a pitched ball, but the Oilers touched him up for ten hits, including two home runs and three two-baggers. Zinn's wild pitch also let a score in.

Beaumont, Tex., May 15.—Ollie Jost was too much for his former teammates today and the Oilers hammered Zinn when hits meant runs, piling up a score of 8 to 0. Ten Navigators were left on bases, three of them in the eighth when James struck out with the bases full.

Beaumont began scoring in the second inning. Zinn was fairly steady, walking one man and hitting Doug with a pitched ball, but the Oilers touched him up for ten hits, including two home runs and three two-baggers. Zinn's wild pitch also let a score in.

BERRIES CAN BE PUT UP IN IDEAL SHAPE

By Miss Bernice Carter, State Agent Home Demonstration Work, Extension Service, A. and M. of Texas.

Blackberries and dewberries may be canned in such a way that they can hardly be detected from fresh berries. The following is the method to be used:

Assort and wash the berries carefully, taking precaution not to break them. Wash and sterilize quart jars by placing them in a vessel of water and allow to boil for at least ten minutes. Fill the jars with fresh berries, shaking them down gently so as to get the greatest number possible into the jars. Place the jars into the oven of stove on an asbestos mat, using a moderate oven. Let them remain from eight to ten minutes, or until the berries become heated. On top of the stove place a vessel of crushed berries and heat to boiling. Strain off the juice into a sauce pan and for every four cups of juice add one cup of sugar, bring to a boil and pour into the jar of heated berries, seal tightly and turn jar bottom side up on a table to cool. The boiling syrup gives sufficient heat to the berries to sterilize, yet they will retain their shape and firmness. They will also become permeated with the syrup and are ready for serving.

SHOULD GATHER BERRIES IN SHALLOW VESSELS.

The following directions for preserving berries, taken from Bulletin A-81, will be helpful:

Practically the same methods are to be followed in preserving and making jams of all berries. Berries should be gathered in shallow trays or baskets and not in deep vessels, which allow them to be bruised and crushed. They should be uniform, ripe and sound. Select only large, firm berries for preserving; those for jam may contain the smaller and broken ones. All berries should be carefully sorted and lightly washed by placing in a colander and pouring water over them—rather than putting them into a pan of water.

To retain the best possible color and flavor, syrup for preserved berries should be made of a berry juice obtained by crushing, heating and straining the softer, broken berries. Add one pint of sugar to each pint of berry juice and allow to boil ten minutes. Weigh the choice, perfect berries after removing the caps or stems and allow one pound of sugar extra for each pound of whole berries. Add the extra sugar to the syrup, bring to a boil and allow to boil ten minutes. Pack the berries in the jars, leaving space for the syrup, and seal before dropping the berries into it to prevent shriveling and toughening the fruit. Place over the fire and bring slowly to a boil and simmer until the berries are heated through, being very careful not to overcook; the berries should remain whole. Lift the berries from the syrup and place carefully into shallow pans. Pour syrup over them and allow to stand over night. Pack cold, filling the jar with berries before pouring the syrup over them. Cap, process and seal. The preserves may be packed hot, after removing from the fire, capped and processed immediately. The syrup in which the berries are heated through should have density of 50 degrees and will often need to be boiled down to this density after removing berries.

MARKET REPORT

COTTON

New York.
New York, May 15.—The cotton market was comparatively quiet today and fluctuations were irregular, with July receding from 12.02 to 12.87 and closing at 12.93. The general list closed steady, not unchanged to 6 points lower with the new crop relatively easy.

The market opened steady at an advance of 3 to 11 points in response to relatively firm cables and the continued good spot business in the English market. October sold at 12.19 and December at 12.12 on the call, but prices soon turned easier under realized local selling which seemed to be inspired by the eastern belt forecast for showers in Georgia and the Carolinas. After selling to 12.90 for July, 13.10 for October and 13.24 for December, the market steadied on the western belt forecast calling for frost in parts of Texas and Oklahoma, but rallies of 5 or 6 points were followed by renewed weakness during the afternoon.

Each advance seemed to bring out considerable scattering liquidation, while reactionary sentiment was more active around the local ring and there also appeared to be some selling here for southern account.

The low point of the day was reached during the middle of the afternoon, with May selling at 12.90, October at 13.06 and December at 13.30, or about 4 to 5 points lower.
Closing prices were a shade up from the lowest on covering. Private cables attributed the steadiness in Liverpool to the strong position of near month.

New Orleans.

New Orleans, May 15.—After an initial small bulge, the cotton market held today interests that recently have been supporting it, while offerings of short contracts were stimulated by the forecast of rains for the eastern belt, where bullish traders claim moisture is badly needed. Around the opening, prices advanced 7 to 8 points, chiefly on the result of better cables than due. A gradual sag followed and in the early afternoon the market was at its lowest, a net loss of 4 to 10 points. The close was 1 to 3 points down net.

Short sellers were not aggressive, and the bear element appeared willing to wait on weather conditions in the west because of the forecast of frost tonight in portions of Texas and Oklahoma.
Less business was done in the spot department than usual of late.

COTTONSEED OIL

New York, May 15.—Steadiness was a feature in cotton seed oil most of the session, with a little reaction near the close. Light offerings on a better business in the demand from northern Europe, held the early market. Final prices were 5 points lower to 3 higher. Sales 12,000 barrels. The close was called steady in tone:

Independent Long Distance Messages

Business is good on the Independent Long Distance—last month we handled more than 40,000 toll messages all on our own lines.

Business men who once thought the Independent lines "went nowhere" are surprised to know that we operate almost 5000 miles of our own toll lines—and connect with many miles more.

Fair rates, prompt service, courteous treatment—they've all helped build up the Independent business from nothing to thousands of messages a day. The "Rapid-Fire" Waco-Dallas service alone has brought us many customers. Moral—Use the Independent Lines.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE. Here's an opportunity for someone to acquire one of the most attractive and complete combination country home and farm. This is an exceptional place, ideal surroundings, and conditions most favorable for a profitable business to be conducted in high-class poultry, hogs and other stock. The farm, 100 acres, is approximately eight miles in the tract divided into farm and pasture with about thirty-five acres under irrigation. The location commands a fine view of Waco and surroundings; this is a natural park. On the land is a lake stocked with fish, and on the tract is a modern house with up-to-date conveniences with bathroom connected to sewer, house is piped for water, also cement porch, large fine barn, dairy house with modern equipment, tenant house, poultry and hog houses, concrete silos, etc., 2400 ft. house with gas engine for pumping water, filling silos, cutting wood, etc. Another small engine for other purposes; the orchard and berry tract; twenty-eight head of Jersey cattle, sixty hogs, many chickens, Orpington, Buff Leghorn and R. I. Pies, Indian Runner ducks, geese, guinea, etc., go with the place. Complete farm and garden tools, implements, mowers, hay press, etc. Fine artistic water pipes all over the property. It's located only one and one-fourth miles from the city limits of Waco. The owner wishes to retire; has a good reason for selling. Not desiring cash, he would take half in trade in good agricultural land, free from debt or see and give good terms on balance. This place can be made to pay 20 per cent on the investment price, $24,000. This property should be well appreciated. FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE. Here's an opportunity for someone to acquire one of the most attractive and complete combination country home and farm. This is an exceptional place, ideal surroundings, and conditions most favorable for a profitable business to be conducted in high-class poultry, hogs and other stock. The farm, 100 acres, is approximately eight miles in the tract divided into farm and pasture with about thirty-five acres under irrigation. The location commands a fine view of Waco and surroundings; this is a natural park. On the land is a lake stocked with fish, and on the tract is a modern house with up-to-date conveniences with bathroom connected to sewer, house is piped for water, also cement porch, large fine barn, dairy house with modern equipment, tenant house, poultry and hog houses, concrete silos, etc., 2400 ft. house with gas engine for pumping water, filling silos, cutting wood, etc. Another small engine for other purposes; the orchard and berry tract; twenty-eight head of Jersey cattle, sixty hogs, many chickens, Orpington, Buff Leghorn and R. I. Pies, Indian Runner ducks, geese, guinea, etc., go with the place. Complete farm and garden tools, implements, mowers, hay press, etc. Fine artistic water pipes all over the property. It's located only one and one-fourth miles from the city limits of Waco. The owner wishes to retire; has a good reason for selling. Not desiring cash, he would take half in trade in good agricultural land, free from debt or see and give good terms on balance. This place can be made to pay 20 per cent on the investment price, $24,000. This property should be well appreciated. For automobile appointment for inspection see THE METROPOLITAN REALTY CO., Southern Union Bldg., upstairs.

WANTED—If you have a business for sale in Waco that can be bought for $5000 or less, call on METROPOLITAN REALTY CO., Southern Union Bldg., (Upstairs).

WANTED—An up-to-date cottage home of 5 or 6 rooms, can pay only a small first down, balance must be easy terms. METROPOLITAN REALTY CO., Southern Union Bldg., (Upstairs).

FOR SALE—A beautiful 8-room house, large lot, all modern conveniences; a chance to make a splendid investment in a sure-enough home. $2500 exchange. 1000 terms. C. C. Shumway & Co., Southern Union Bldg., (Upstairs).

REAL ESTATE.

FOR SALE. Out on Clay street, up on the hill, right on the car line, we are offering home for sale (no trade)—a home built for a home and not of the paper-box variety. This house has concrete and brick foundation, hard-wood floor, old English mantle in living room, all rooms piped for gas, nice electrical fixtures. The house has five large rooms, is a two-story, and a very convenient floor plan. Back and front stairs. One of the prettiest homes on the street, nice garage, a garden, small orchard, big deep lot. In a neighborhood surrounded by home owners who have civic pride. This is a place you will admire. The property would be cheap at $5000; for quick sale the owner authorities to cut the price down to $4000. In order to make a quick sale, we would accept just a few hundred dollars down and the balance $20 per month. Less than rent. For automobile inspection see the METROPOLITAN REALTY CO. They will take pleasure, and with pride show you this wonderful career which will make some one an ideal home. Don't wait, call at once. METROPOLITAN REALTY CO., Southern Union Bldg., (Upstairs).

Says Woman's Beauty Depends Upon Health

HEALTH AND VIGOR NECESSARY FOR REGULATION OF ORGANS OF ELIMINATION.

Skin foods and face creams and powders cannot make a woman beautiful, because beauty lies deeper than that—it depends on health. In most cases the basis of health and the cause of sickness can be traced to the action of the bowels.

The headache, the lassitude, the slow skin, and the lustreless eyes are usually caused by constipation. An ideal remedy for women, and one that is especially suited to their delicate organism, is found in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a mild laxative compound, pleasant to the taste and free from opiates and narcotic drugs of every description. Mrs. Gertrude Jordan, 522 North Liberty St., Indianapolis, Ind., says: "It is simply fine! I have never been able to find anything to compare with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. I started using it for the baby and now it is my family standby in all cases where a laxative is needed."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle; a trial bottle can be obtained, free of

Old Confederate Is Waco Visitor

A Confederate veteran who heard the din of battle and the shrieks of bursting shells in the awful conflict between the soldiers of the north and the south at the Battle of Gettysburg—denominated as the turning point in the Civil War—spent yesterday in Waco, and he met here a number of his old friends as he was formerly a resident of this city.

This veteran was T. H. Saxon, now living in Austin, and he is 76 years old, but is standing the inroads of time well so far as looks are concerned. Mr. Saxon said yesterday that he was wounded at Gettysburg, in the right knee, and was so badly injured and lost so much blood that he lay on the battlefield for three days, without anything to eat. The wound was gangrened in a short time, and Mr. Saxon suffered intensely. He lived through the terrible ordeal, however, and has been a very active man for his age.

His recitals of the battle of Gettysburg are thrilling in the extreme, and he is a good narrator, too, using his experiences and recollections to great advantage, when reminiscence.

MEETING RED CROSS CHAPTER TONIGHT

Citizens interested in preparedness are cordially invited by Col. W. W. Seely, president of the local chapter of the American Red Cross association, to be present at a meeting of the chapter this evening, 8 o'clock in the New State House. The chapter has been organized for several months but it is now planned to carry forth its purposes more definitely and to increase the membership. This is declared to be a very practical phase of the preparedness movement and a large attendance is being urged. Applications for membership will be received.

Scientific Corset Fitting Shown at Queen Today

The true story of how an ambitious girl, the sole support of her aged parent, paid off a mortgage on their home and rose to an important position in one of Chicago's largest manufacturing concerns, furnishes the interesting theme of "How Marjorie Won a Career," the Essanay feature picture which will be shown at the Queen theater today in a special matinee for women.

But the feature of the picture which will be of most particular interest to every woman is the fact that its principal scene shows the fitting rooms of a great corset establishment, where expert corsetiers are fitting corsets to every type of figure, living models being used for the fittings.

Nine distinct types of figures are employed in this scene—the only picture of its kind ever made. As each model enters the scene, the chief characteristics and requirements of her particular type of figure are pointed out, and the proper corset selected, then the fitter adjusts the corset on the model, showing just how this should be done in order to secure the desired effect. Figures of the perfect "average" type are shown, and are fitted for corsets which suit them to the best advantage. Then the figures are shown and each is fitted with its proper type of corset.

Here on the screen you see the clever corsetiers deftly change a heavy, fleshy figure into one of commanding grace; next comes a slim, hollow-backed figure, and the change that is worked by the corset is marvelous. Figures that are too heavy above the waist are improved, the woman who is "stout and short" comes next in turn and is made to look taller and more shapely; the skilled corsetiere shows you how to make a long waist look shorter and a short waist look longer—a living model being employed to demonstrate each style and figure.

Women all over the country who have seen this picture have pronounced it one of the most interesting and at the same time, most instructive pictures they have ever witnessed. The idea of exhibiting this interesting feature picture to the women of all the world was conceived by H. W. Gossett, president of the well known Gossett front-lacing corset company, and the picture is shown at the Queen today by special arrangement with the Goldstein-Miguel company, who are the Gossett representatives in Waco.

Cold Flurry of Rain Puts Taboo on Summer Weather

True to its vagaries, Texas weather afforded a respite from the past several mid-May days by a dip in the mercury and a flurry of cold, blowing rain for a short time after 10 o'clock last night. Weather reports of the nation indicated frost, cold and even snow in the northwestern section.

Central Texas weather reports secured through the courtesy of the night chief operator of the Texas Telephone company showed that Fort Worth had a hard day with heavy rain, and more or less rain in scattered points over the section as follows: Waxahatchie, light; Penelope, none; Marlin, hard; Mart, heavy; Temple, hard; Gatesville, none; Moody, heavy; McGregor, light; Hillsboro, light; Taylor, none.

Committee to Raise $15,000 for Cotton Palace Appointed

Looking toward the raising of a $15,000 guarantee for 216 bales Cotton Palace, President Perry A. Duncan of the Young Men's Business League has appointed the following committee with W. V. Crawford as the chairman: F. E. Goodman, W. W. Naman, W. H. Hoffmann, R. B. Dupree, A. G. Steele, Louey Migel, W. J. Neale, J. J. Hutchison, John F. Wright. The committee will begin its duties very soon.

The plan used in promoting the exhibition has been to secure the notes from business men of the city to back the institution and assure its success. It has never yet become necessary to use any of this guarantee, and the turning of the cancelled notes has been a sort of festival in celebration of the exposition's success.

PLAN FOR GETTING DATA FOR PREPAREDNESS BEING PUSHED

Work Being Done in Waco is Carried Out by Naval Board Over the Country.

The industrial survey of Waco, which is being taken by a committee headed by County Engineer R. J. Windrow of the naval consulting board for a test of the preparedness of the nation, is being pushed through the various cities of Texas and through the entire nation. The program is an ambitious one and probably the first of its kind to have been taken in this country. Waco has approximately twenty plants which the committee will secure data on.

This survey is one of the more immediate and specific aspects of industrial preparedness which are in a fair way to be worked out promptly by the naval consulting board, of which the committee on industrial preparedness has within the past week been organized in the separate states. The various state committees are now meeting and organizing for the surveys.

Aside from this, the most pressing need in preparedness is the need to have up-to-date information on the railroad rates, it was stated, would be very low, and unlimited entertainment will be provided for the Rotarians and their families attending. Arranging for the next weekly meeting of the Waco Rotarians it was decided that the toastmaster will be Col. Harry P. Jordan, who was placed on the retired list of the Texas National Guard two years ago after serving twenty years, tendered his service to the state in the new guard organization in a wire to Governor Ferguson. He has been a member of the guard since 1894, having served from a regimental sergeant-major to colonel. The telegram was the occasion for Colonel Jordan discussing some of the angles of the National Guard.

Big Shipments of Hardware to City

Big shipments of stock are coming in for the hardware and implement men of Waco, indicating that they look with confidence towards the future as regards the business which might be theirs, and that they are preparing to take advantage of the conditions which they believe to be in front of them.

Waco is rapidly getting to be a point of much importance in the implement business, and has long been conceded to be the best hardware town in Texas, population considered. It is believed that some of the large implement houses will ere long recognize this place and will put a substantial branch here, this tending to still further increase Waco's prestige in this respect, and aiding in pulling more of this class of business here.

ROTARY CLUB WILL BE HOST TO CONGRESSMEN

PLANS DISCUSSED AT MEETING YESTERDAY TO ENTERTAIN FLOOD COMMITTEE.

J. W. Tabor is Chief Speaker on Hardware—Local Club Considers National Convention.

Listening to several interesting, spicy and instructive talks; arranging for extending an invitation to the congressional flood prevention committee which is to visit Texas next week to come to Waco, and arranging for entertaining the members after they get here, hosting the coming meeting of the International Rotarians in Cincinnati in July, the Waco Rotarians at their weekly lunch yesterday at the New State House held a snappy meeting, the toastmaster for the occasion being Dr. I. L. McGlasson.

Telling of the stellar tendencies of prices of many articles in the hardware line since the opening of the European war, and interesting his hearers very much in what he said, J. W. Tabor of the McLendon Hardware company spoke of the skyrocketing in certain things, the upward trend being traceable to the war in nearly all the instances mentioned. It was a very informing address, and indicated the necessity of the speaker with the price of things in the hardware line.

Present at the meeting as guests were General Manager F. R. Slater and Assistant General Manager E. S. Fletcher of the Texas Power and Light company of Dallas, these gentlemen making brief but hearty impromptu talks.

W. W. Seely, president of the Brazos Valley and River Improvement association, spoke to the Rotarians, telling them of the visit to the state early next week of the congressional flood prevention committee, stating that the information obtained by this committee and the impression secured would have a strong bearing on the future of the state as regards improvements to prevent floods, assist in navigation, etc., and the Rotarians decided, on his suggestion, to invite the committee to Waco and to entertain them after they get here. A committee to extend the invitation and make certain arrangements was appointed, headed by L. C. Puckett, while another committee to look after the entertainment feature was named, headed by Roy E. Lane.

It was urged by some of the Rotarians that all who could should arrange their summer trips to include the international meeting of Rotarians in Cincinnati in July, this great gathering having up to date matters of much import to the country and members. The railroad rates, it was stated, would be very low, and unlimited entertainment will be provided for the Rotarians and their families attending. Arranging for the next weekly meeting of the Waco Rotarians it was decided that the toastmaster will be Col. Harry P. Jordan, who was placed on the retired list of the Texas National Guard two years ago after serving twenty years, tendered his service to the state in the new guard organization in a wire to Governor Ferguson. He has been a member of the guard since 1894, having served from a regimental sergeant-major to colonel. The telegram was the occasion for Colonel Jordan discussing some of the angles of the National Guard.

Speaking of the possibilities of intervention Colonel Jordan said: "I think there is a possibility unless the Mexican government co-operates with the United States troops in running down the bandits that have raided United States territory. The president and the American people have at last determined to put a stop to the raiding of American soil and it must stop even if we have to intervene and occupy Mexico to do it. It seems to me that the de facto government is everything to gain and nothing to lose by its co-operation with our troops in suppressing the raiding of our soil. It all depends on whether or not the false pride of the Mexican will get the better of his judgment for it is much to his interest that law and order be brought about in his country, at least to that degree where American lives and property are respected. Interventively is absolutely certain unless co-operation is effected with our troops."

"What do you think will be the disposition of the Texas troops now mobilized at Fort Sam Houston?" he was asked.

"I believe they will be mustered into the regular army for an indefinite period, and when the bill now being considered by the national congress becomes effective, which will result in the next few days, they will become a part of the increased regular army, as the bill provides for an increase of about 150,000 more troops than the present quota and these additional troops will have to be taken from the organized militia or by immediate recruiting over the country. I look to see much of the organized militia merged into the regular army immediately upon the enactment of that law."

He thinks the troops will remain on the border indefinitely, is absolutely certain unless co-operation is effected with our troops."

Improvement Notes

Real estate transfers reported by the McLennan County Abstract company yesterday:

J. C. Crawford to J. M. Penland, lot 5, block 38, Farwell Heights addition, $1,000.

Mrs. Anne B. Bennet et alr to Bishop Kinsolving, trustee, east half lot 9, block 46, Mart, $400.

J. M. Lefevre et ux to Jas. A. Cravey, Sr., lots 2 and 2, I. A. Goldstein addition, $750.

J. J. McCook to Lucy N. Elliott, 100 acres of the C. A. Hamblin survey, $500.

This gives a total of $12,550.

TODAY'S AID TO BEAUTY

An especially fine shampoo for this weather, one that dissolves and entirely removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt, can easily be made at trifling expense by simply dissolving a teaspoonful of canthrox in a cup of hot water. Pour slowly on scalp and massage briskly. This creates a soothing, cooling lather. Rinsing leaves the scalp spotlessly clean, soft and pliant, while the hair takes on the glossy richness of natural color, also a fluffiness which makes it seem much heavier than it is. After a canthrox shampoo arranging the hair is a pleasure.

Mr. Saxon said yesterday that he was wounded at Gettysburg, in the right knee, and was so badly injured and lost so much blood that he lay on the battlefield for three days, without anything to eat. The wound was gangrened in a short time, and Mr. Saxon suffered intensely. He lived through the terrible ordeal, however, and has been a very active man for his age.

His recitals of the battle of Gettysburg are thrilling in the extreme, and he is a good narrator, too, using his experiences and recollections to great advantage, when reminiscence.

Students at State Interested in Forming Militia

Letters received in Waco from girls and boys who are attending the State university at Austin are to the effect that the call to arms issued to the Texas National Guard proved too strong and alluring for a number of the students of the university and that they enlisted for service with the state troops.

Some young men who were doing good work at the university gave up their studies temporarily for the sound of reveille and the order to march and to listen to "taps."

All of which would indicate that the martial spirit has not died out in this country, and that should the call come to resist an invasion the troops would be forthcoming.

Many Signatures Here to Insurance Petition

Petitions looking to securing the submission to the people, in the July primaries, the question of retention of the Robertson insurance law which requires the investment in Texas of a specified per cent of the premiums of the insurance companies doing business in Texas were in circulation here yesterday, and were being signed numerously.

It was one of the happiest after-dinner parties which was seen by a News representative that it would be necessary to secure 40,000 signatures to the petition before it could be placed on the ballot in July, but he stated further that at least 25,000 signatures had already been secured, and that petitions were in circulation in different parts of Texas and were being signed right along.

It was his opinion that the necessary number of signatures would be in hand within a very short time.

MEETING RED CROSS CHAPTER TONIGHT

Citizens interested in preparedness are cordially invited by Col. W. W. Seley, president of the local chapter of the American Red Cross association, to be present at a meeting of the chapter this evening at 8 o'clock in the New State House. The chapter has been organized for several months but it is not yet carrying forth its purposes more definitely and to increase the membership. This is declared to be a very practical phase of the preparedness movement and a large attendance is earnestly desired. Applications for membership will be received.

Scientific Corset Fitting Shown at Queen Today

The true story of how an ambitious girl, the sole support of her aged parent, paid off a mortgage on their home and rose to an important position in one of Chicago's largest manufacturing concerns, furnishes the intensely interesting theme of "How Marjorie Won a Career," the Essanay feature picture which will be shown at the Queen theater today in a special matinee for women.

But the feature of the picture which will be of most particular interest to every woman is the fact that its principal scene shows the fitting of a great corset establishment, where expert corsetiers are fitting correct corsets to every type of figure, living models being used for the fittings.

Nine distinct types of figures are employed in this scene—the only picture of its kind ever made. As each model enters the scene, the chief corsetier and her assistants select the particular type of figure and the proper corset selected; then the fitter adjusts the corset on the model, showing just how this should be done in order to secure the desired effect. Figures of the perfect "average" type are shown, and are fitted for corsets which suit them to the best advantage. Then the figures, which vary from the average are shown and each is fitted with its proper type of corset.

Here on the screen you see the clever corsetiers deftly change a heavy, fleshy figure into one of commanding grace; next comes a slim, hollow-backed figure, and the change that is worked by the corset is marvelous. Figures that are too heavy above the waist are improved, the woman who is "stout and short" comes next, and is made to look taller and more shapely; the skilled corsetier shows you how to make a long waist look shorter, and a short waist look longer—a living model being employed to demonstrate each style and figure.

Women all over the country who have seen this picture have pronounced it one of the most interesting and at the same time, most instructive pictures they have ever witnessed. The idea of exhibiting his interesting feature picture to the women of all the world was conceived by H. W. Gossard company, makers of the well known Gossard front-lacing corsets, and the picture is shown at the Queen theater in special arrangement with the Goldstein-Miguel company, who are the Gossard representatives in Waco.

"How Marjorie Won a Career" will be shown from 11 a. m. until 6 p. m. today to women only. Men will not be permitted. The matinee will, of course, include the Queen's regular program, this feature picture being simply an added attraction.

Cold Flurry of Rain Puts Taboo on Summer Weather

True to its vagaries, Texas weather afforded a respite from the past several mid-winter days by a dip in the mercury and a flurry of cold, blowing rain for a short time after 10 o'clock last night. Weather reports of the nation indicated frost, cold and even snow in the northwest.

Central Texas weather reports secured through the courtesy of the night chief operator of the Texas Telephone company showed that Fort Worth had a hard hail with a heavy rain and more or less rain in scattered spots over the section as follows: Waxahachie, light; Penelope, none; Marlin, hard; Mart, heavy; Temple, hard; Gatesville, none; Moody, heavy; McGregor, light; Hillsboro, light; Taylor, none.

Committee to Raise $15,000 for Cotton Palace Appointed

Looking toward the raising of a $15,000 guarantee for 1916 Texas Cotton Palace, President Perry A. Duncan of the Young Men's Business League has appointed the following committee with W. V. Crawford as the chairman: F. E. Goodman, W. W. Naman, W. H. Hoffmann, R. B. Dupree, A. G. Steele, Louie Migel, W. J. Neale, J. J. Hutchison, John P. Wright. The committee will begin its duties very soon.

The plan used in promoting the exposition has been to secure the notes from business men of the city to back the institution and assure its success. It has never yet become necessary to return any of this guarantee, and the returning of the cancelled notes has been a sort of festival in celebration of the exposition's success.

PLAN FOR GETTING DATA FOR PREPAREDNESS BEING PUSHED

Work Being Done in Waco is Carried Out by Naval Board Over the Country.

The industrial survey of Waco, which is being taken by a committee headed by County Engineer R. J. Windrow of the naval consulting board for a test of the preparedness of the nation, is being pushed through the various cities of Texas and through the entire nation. The program is an ambitious one and probably the first of its kind to have been taken in this country. Waco has approximately twenty plants which the committee will secure data on.

This survey is one of the more immediate and specific aspects of industrial preparedness which are in a fair way to be worked out promptly by the naval consulting board, of which the committee on industrial preparedness has within the past week been organized in the separate states. The various state committees are now meeting and organizing for the surveys.

Aside from this, the most pressing needs in industrial preparedness include: First, the position of the railroads. No plan is under way for co-operation between the federal government, the war department and the railroads, although such a plan would be absolutely and immediately necessary in case of war. Second, the plan of co-operation between the railroads, motor manufacturers and operators and the war department has been begun.

The development of American industries made necessary by the war proceeds slowly. It has been pointed out in the daily press within the last week that the dye industry, for instance—the importance of which was brought out a few weeks after the beginning of the war—is in much the same state of backwardness. The development of this industry undoubtedly presents tremendous difficulties, but because the raw products are also in demand for the manufacture of high explosives and because the uncertainty of war makes it impossible to make private capital timid about engaging in an industry that may be wiped out at any moment. Yet the need remains imperative. It is a determining condition in certain phases of our manufacturing prospects. A similar situation exists with reference to certain acids and drugs, especially those to be obtained from coal tar products.

The naval consulting board has an excellent program, but it depends upon the co-operation it meets from employers all over the country. A consideration of this problem and the adoption of practical means to make co-operation as immediate and prompt as possible is the business of the various commercial bodies of the country—local, state and national.

It is noticeable that boards of commerce and other commercial bodies in various cities have often been first groups to interest themselves in preparedness in the city. They have given weekly luncheons, got behind local mass meetings, and in other ways acted as a leader in the community with reference to national preparedness. It is a question whether even more active work than this will not be required of them in two directions: (1) in organizing the industrial interests of the community, and (2) in lining up with business bodies all over the country to throw the weight of business and industrial interests as a solid whole in favor of adequate national defense of the community. The influence of the business body is exceptionally great, especially in such matters as the introduction of civilian training and military training in the higher grades of the public school system.

The new duties of the last few weeks show that various institutes and associations of bankers have shown great interest in the question of preparedness. A poll of Illinois bankers showed that they were almost solidly for it.

The real question and the real need is to organize the evident interest of industrial and business men in preparedness so that it shall not only aid in forming the sentiment of community, but may actually be a working force in promoting adequate legislation, national and state, and in definitely increasing the practical interest and efforts of civilians in securing military training, it is declared.

Local Deaths

J. W. Brooks. The funeral services of J. W. Brooks, whose death occurred Saturday afternoon, will be held from the residence of his son, M. S. Brooks, 1909 Barnard street, this morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. P. P. Culver, pastor of the Austin Avenue Methodist church, will officiate and interment will follow in the Oakwood cemetery. Members of the Masonic fraternity will have charge of the funeral.

Active pall bearers will be selected from among the Masons and the following are the honorary pall bearers: John Sleeper, W. J. Hill, A. R. McCollum, T. Jeff Smith, J. F. Brinkerhoff, Dr. N. A. Olive, A. B. Cowan, Ray Rowell, J. W. Watson, J. W. Whitworth and Eugene Early.

ROTARY CLUB WILL BE HOST TO CONGRESSMEN

PLANS DISCUSSED AT MEETING YESTERDAY TO ENTERTAIN FLOOD COMMITTEE.

J. W. Tabor Is Chief Speaker on Hardware—Local Club Considers National Convention.

Listening to several interesting, spicy and instructive talks; arranging for extending an invitation to the congressional flood prevention committee which is to visit Texas next week to come to Waco, and arranging for entertaining the members after they get here, the coming meeting of the International Rotarians in Cincinnati in July, the Waco Rotarians at their weekly lunch yesterday at the New State House held a snappy meeting of the toastmaster for the occasion being Dr. J. L. McGlasson.

Telling of the stellar tendencies of prices of many articles in the hardware line since the opening of the war, and the interesting history of his hearers very much in what he said, J. W. Tabor of the McLendon Hardware company spoke of the skyrocketing in certain things, the upward being traceable to the war in nearly all the instances mentioned. It was a very informing address, and indicated the familiarity of the speaker with the price of things in the hardware line.

Present at the meeting as guests were General Manager F. R. Slater and Assistant General Manager E. S. Fletcher of the Texas Power and Light company of Dallas, these gentlemen making brief but hearty impromptu talks.

W. W. Seley, president of the Brazos Valley and River Improvement association, spoke to the Rotarians, telling them of the visit to the state early next week of the congressional flood prevention committee, stating that the information obtained by this committee and the impression which it would have a strong bearing on the future of the state as regards improvements to prevent floods, assist in navigation, etc., and the Rotarians decided, on his suggestion, to invite the committee to Waco and to entertain them after they get here. A committee to extend the invitation and make certain arrangements was appointed, headed by C. Puckett, while another committee to look after the entertainment feature was named, headed by Roy E. Lane.

It was urged by some of the Rotarians that all who could should arrange their summer trips to include the international meeting of Rotarians in Cincinnati in July, this great gathering to have up matters of much importance to the country and members. The railroad rates, it was stated, would be very low, and unlimited entertainment will be provided for the Rotarians and their families attending.

Arranging for the next weekly meeting of the Waco Rotarians it was decided that the toastmaster will be Postmaster C. B. McCollum, with Dr. Carl Lovelace as the orator of the occasion and Prof. J. M. Evans furnishing the thought of the day.

Big Shipments of Hardware to City

Big shipments of stock are coming in for the hardware and implement men of Waco, indicating that they look with confidence towards the future as regards the business, which ought to be theirs, and that they are preparing to take advantage of the conditions which they believe to be in front of them.

Waco is rapidly getting to be a point of much importance in the implement business, and has long been conceded to be the best hardware town in Texas, population considered. It is believed that some of the large implement houses will ere long recognize this place and will put a substantial branch here, this tending to still further increase Waco's prestige in this direction and adding to the prestige of this class of business here.

Improvement Notes

Real estate transfers reported by the McLendon County Abstract company yesterday:

J. C. Crawford to J. M. Penland, lot 5, block 38, Farwell Heights addition, $1,500.

Mrs. Anne B. Bennet et vir to Bishop Kinsolving, trustee, east half lot 9, block 46, Mart, $400.

J. M. Lefevers et ux to Jas. A. Craven, Sr., lots 1 and 2, L. A. Goldstein addition, $5750.

J. J. Hickok to Lucy N. Elliott, 100 acres of the C. A. Hamblin survey, $5400.

This gives a total of $12,550.

TODAY'S AID TO BEAUTY

An especially fine shampoo for this weather, one that dissolves and entirely removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt, can easily be made at trifling expense by simply dissolving a teaspoonful of canthrox in a cup of hot water. Pour slowly on scalp and massage briskly. This creates a soothing, cooling lather. Rinsing leaves the scalp spotlessly clean, soft and pliant, while the hair takes on the glossy richness of natural color, also a fluffiness which makes it seem much heavier than it is. After a canthrox shampoo arranging the hair is a pleasure.

H. P. JORDAN BELIEVES IN FEDERALIZED GUARD IDEA

After Being on Retired List and Serving Twenty Years, Jordan Offers Services.

Col. Harry P. Jordan, who was placed on the retired list of the Texas National Guard two years ago after serving twenty years, tendered his service to the state in the new guard organization in a wire to Governor Ferguson. He has been a member of the guard since 1894, having served from a regimental sergeant-major to colonel. The telegram was the occasion for Colonel Jordan discussing some of the angles of the National Guard.

Speaking of the possibilities of intervention Colonel Jordan said: "I think there is a possibility unless the Mexican government co-operates with the United States troops in running down the bandits that have raided United States territory. The president and the American people have at last determined to put a stop to the raiding of American soil and it must stop even if we have to intervene and occupy Mexico to do it. It seems to me that the de facto government has everything to gain and nothing to lose by its co-operation with our troops in suppressing the raiding of our soil. It all depends on whether or not the false pride of the Mexican will get the better of his judgment and officers' business sense. Law and order is brought about in his country, at least to that degree where American lives and property are respected. Intervention is absolutely certain unless co-operation is effected with our troops."

"What do you think will be the disposition of the Texas troops now mobilized at Fort Sam Houston?" he was asked. "I believe they will be mustered into the regular army for an indefinite period, and when the bill now being considered by the national congress becomes effective, which will result in the next few days, they will become a part of the increased regular army, as the bill provides for an increase of about 150,000 more troops than the present quota and these additional troops will have to be taken from the organized militia or by immediate recruiting over the country. I look to see much of the organized militia merged into the regular army immediately upon the enactment of that law." He thinks the troops will remain on the border indefinitely.

"They will be strengthened continuously and many more punitive expeditions will be sent into Mexico to run down and punish bandits, regardless of the wishes of the de facto government. If that government will co-operate it will be simply a question of patrolling the border with a strong complement of troops so that the recurrence of the like of the Columbus raid will not be possible and sending expeditions into Mexico to apprehend and punish raiders. If co-operation is denied then it will be intervention, until a stable government is inaugurated in our sister republic. In
